The New Bath Guide:

The New Bath Guide Christopher Anstey, Annick Cossic, 2010 This illustrated edition of The New Bath Guide by Christopher Anstey is based on the Second Issue of the First Edition which was published in 1766 It includes two major additions made by the author the Epilogue and A Charge to the Poets It aims at widening the perspective on the eighteenth century by examining the work of a minor poet and challenges conventional assumptions about the scope of minor poetry This series of satirical letters in verse written by the members of a provincial family staying in Georgian Bath provides an inexhaustible source of fun and has great sociological interest Thanks to the individual and varied voices which are heard in this epistolary poem a whole society in the making comes alive through the distorting mirror of satire The introduction notes and appendices throw new light on a once famous and provocative text and make extensive use of little known material such as significant parts of the author's correspondence They situate Anstey's work in its literary and historical contexts by locating it at the junction of fiction and documentation at a time of emergence when new social codes were defined for a new society

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
