The Last Campaign Zachary Karabell, 2007-12-18 In The Last Campaign Zachary Karabell rescues the 1948 presidential campaign from the annals of political folklore Dewey Defeats Truman the Chicago Tribune memorably and erroneously heralded to give us a fresh look at perhaps the last time the American people could truly distinguish what the candidates stood for In 1948 Harry Truman the feisty working class Democratic incumbent was one of the most unpopular presidents the country had ever known His Republican rival the aloof Thomas Dewey was widely thought to be a shoe in These two major party candidates were flanked on the far left by the Progressive Henry Wallace and on the far right by white supremacist Dixiecrat Strom Thurmond The Last Campaign exposes the fascinating story behind Truman s legendary victory and turns a probing eye toward a by gone era of political earnestness when for the last time in this century an entire spectrum of ideologies was represented a time before television fundamentally altered the political landscape Borneo: The Last Campaign Michael Veitch, 2025-08-26 From bestselling author Michael Veitch Australia s Secret Army Turning Point comes the story of the brilliant yet controversial campaign which ended Australia s involvement in World War II Borneo The Last Campaign tells the story of Operation OBOE the massive three pronged assault on the vast Japanese held island of Borneo in 1945 It was one of the largest amphibious invasions of the entire war and a virtually all Australian operation Over the final twelve weeks of World War Two the 1st Australian Army Corps chased down and fought the remnants of the Japanese army over burning oil fields up languid tropical rivers along leech ridden jungle tracks and across endless hills valleys and ridges Far from being the easy mopping up the men had been told to expect Borneo turned out to be as savage as anything the Aussies had hitherto encountered in the Pacific as the Japanese despite the inevitability of their defeat continued fighting with fanaticism tenacity and shocking brutality Immensely complex but brilliantly planned OBOE called for Australia s two most famous Infantry Divisions the 7th and 9th to storm ashore at three separate landing areas supported by US and Australian naval forces and local Dyak guerrilla fighters Their objectives were to secure Borneo s oil facilities and liberate its long suffering people Although now largely forgotten as well as mired in the controversy that it had little effect on the overall outcome of the war the skill bravery and determination showed by the average Australian soldier on Borneo many of whom were fighting their one and only battle of the war is beyond question OBOE involved more than 70 000 Australian military personnel of which over 2000 became casualties with nearly 600 killed It was also where the two final Australian Victoria Crosses of the war were won as well as literally dozens of other awards for bravery OBOE was superbly executed achieved all of its objectives and was the very last sustained Allied action of World War Two Drawing on a myriad of firsthand sources and interviews with the two last surviving veterans Borneo The Last Campaign examines the lead up the landings and the campaign itself in never before published detail Once again Michael Veitch provides a compelling and fascinating account of a part of Australian war history that deserves to be recognised The Last Campaign Barbara Frank, 1968 The Last
