education became a major campaign issue for both parties in the 1990s McGuinn argues that the emergence of swing issues such as education can facilitate major policy change even as they influence the direction of wider political debates and partisan conflict McGuinn traces the Republican shift from seeking to eliminate the U S Department of Education to embracing federal leadership in school reform then details the negotiations over NCLB the forces that shaped its final provisions and the ways in which the law constitutes a new federal education policy regime against which states have now begun to rebel and that only by understanding the unique dynamics of national education politics will reformers be able to craft a more effective national role in school reform     The Party System, Public Opinion, Illustrations and Reflections, Social Institutions ,1889     The Granite Monthly Henry Harrison Metcalf,John Norris McClintock,1890 Contains articles on the White Mountains and a map     The Parties and the Men ,1896     The party system.
