The Buddha And The Terrorist:

The Buddha and the Terrorist Satish Kumar, 2012-09-01 A Buddhist parable on confronting violence offers a profound message about hope in the midst of seemingly hopeless terrors Robert Thurman In this timely retelling of an ancient Buddhist parable peace activist Satish Kumar has created a small book with a powerful spiritual message about ending violence It is a tale of a fearsome outcast named Angulimala Necklace of Fingers who is terrorizing towns and villages in order to gain control of the state and murdering people and adding their fingers to his gruesome necklace One day he comes face to face with the Buddha and is persuaded through a series of compelling conversations to renounce violence and take responsibility for his actions The Buddha and the Terrorist addresses the urgent questions we face today Should we talk to terrorists Can we reason with religious fundamentalists Is nonviolence practical The story ends with a dramatic trial that speaks to the victims of terrorism the families whose mothers fathers sons and daughters Angulimala has murdered It asks whether it is possible for them to forgive Or whether it is even desirable No one can read The Buddha and the Terrorist without thinking about the root causes of terrorism about good and evil about justice and forgiveness about the kind of place we want the world to be and most importantly about the most productive and practical way to get there The wisdom within this book provides a crucial alternative to the unending cycle of bloodshed and retaliation Booklist This kind of parable has a calming effect on the mind The change in outlook from anger to compassion is also contagious also powerful Los Angeles Times Book Review A challenging story beautifully written most pertinent and relevant to our time Deepak Chopra

The Buddha and the Terrorist Satish Kumar, 2022-12-19 Among all the experiences of the Buddha his eye to eye encounter with a terrorist is perhaps the most relevant and vital for those of us caught in the binds of the early 21st century Once upon a time in northern India there lived a violent and fearsome outcaste called Angulimala necklace of fingers He terrorised towns and villages in order to try to gain control of the state murdering people and adding their fingers to his gruesome necklace The Buddha set out to meet Angulimala and with the power of love and compassion he persuaded him to renounce violence and take responsibility for his past actions Thus Angulimala was transformed The Buddha and the Terrorist brings a message for our time about the importance of looking for the root causes of violence and of finding peaceful means to end terror This revised edition includes a new Prologue Talking to Terrorists in which Satish Kumar discusses how we can best deal with the phenomenon of international terrorism By telling the tale of the pitiless blood splattered Angulimala activist Satish Kumar reminds us that when the Buddha deliberately and compassionately faced real fear the fear in that real face evaporated

The Buddha and the Terrorist Satish Kumar, 2004 If You Meet the Buddha on the Road Michael Jerryson, 2018-03-27 Drawing on Buddhist treatments of violence this book explores Buddhist invocation support or justification of war conflict state violence and gender discrimination In addition it examines the ways in which Buddhists address violence as military chaplains cope with violence in a conflict zone and serve as witnesses of blasphemy to Buddhism

The India and the World Krishna Kumar Singh, 2014-01-22 The India and the World Shame and Uncertainty has mainly depicted issues like social political economic poverty illiteracy lack of health facilities insecurity violence corruption indiscriminate armaments environment pollution hunger etc in India and the world nations written in the last two and half years Articles and essays have gone in details about what is happening in India and the globe Exploitation of poor downtrodden and weaker sections of society have been highlighted Important features of the book are indifference of world nations toward burning issues in the respective countries and also issues of concern throughout the globe Compassion peace and nonviolence have become nobodys concern in India and the globe and these issues have been kept on the back burner Notably one thing is very common in the world that is the rich are getting richer and the poor are getting poorer Shamelessly shameful activities have taken the drivers seat Everywhere in all the countries uncertainties prevail it appears that these important issues have little or no priority among elite and political classes ruling the respective nations of the world General people are helpless and ruling elites are indifferent Almost all nations are threatened with the so called terrorism or militant fanaticism which appear to have adopted militancy because of exploitation and hate campaign against them or their brothers and sisters or their nations in the world World nations have made terrorism extremism and militancy into big hoaxes Instead of finding solutions world nations and their political rulers as well as others are blaming each other for these hoaxes Last but not the least the entire world nations and their people are in the grip of uncertainty and serious threat because of man made miseries in destroying the environment Because of unethical and unprincipled pressure on the earth the earth is itself threatened to bear the burden of man made destruction of the nature and natural wealth Thus the earth is under tremendous pressure of sins of the people of the globe

Bahudhā and the Post 9/11 World Balmiki Prasad Singh, 2008 This book propounds the concept of Bahudha an eternal reality or continuum a dialogue of harmony and peaceful living It refutes widely publicized ideas about the clash of civilizations and explains how the Bahudh approach recognizes the distinction between plural societies and pluralism an inevitable ingredient of democratic societies One of the lessons of 9 11 is that we are living in an inter dependent world The author argues that in these times of unprecedented change old doctrines have to be transcended and the language of dialogue needs to be reconstructed The answer to terrorism lies in respect for human rights and other cultures and value systems This will go a long way in facilitating and enhancing dialogue processes eventually leading to a harmonious society and a peaceful world
