That Night Depository Robert Kost, 2019-04-15 Ross Wilson worked his way up the corporate ladder at the National Telephone and Telegraph company Ross experienced an event in 1981 that would change his life forever After an intracompany transfer he encountered more clandestine and dark activities than he could imagine Follow the ups and downs surprises mysteries crimes and grievances that confronted him That Night With No Barriers Between Us Andini Citra, 2025-07-31 She will have the man but I have his monster And in a strange twisted way I know I have the better part of him Ch The Acceptance Nicole Sterling had built a fortress around her heart calling it discipline when it was truly fear From the 47th floor of a Manhattan skyscraper she was a queen in her corporate kingdom a sharp untouchable single mother who had traded passion for the clean predictable lines of success She believed she was complete that her life with her daughter and her career needed nothing more She had convinced herself that the faint lonely ache deep inside her was just the phantom pain of a life she no longer wanted Then came Kevin Younger brilliant and engaged to be married he was supposed to be safe territory He was her subordinate a rising star on her team whose talent she respected and whose personal life she professionally ignored But he saw something others didn't He saw the cracks in the fortress walls the woman beneath the armor And in the heady intoxicating glow of a career defining victory he didn't see a barrier he saw an invitation It was supposed to be one night of celebration But as the crowd thinned and the expensive whiskey worked its magic the air between them grew thick with unspoken words The corporate armor melted away leaving only the raw undeniable pull of a man and a woman It was a conversation spoken in stolen glances across a fire pit a silent mutual agreement that the carefully drawn lines of their world were about to be irrevocably blurred They both knew the rules and they both knew they were about to break every single one of them What began in that haze soon bled into the daylight becoming a dangerous game played in stolen moments in empty stairwells and the charged silence of the elevator To the world she was his boss the woman in control In the shadows he was her undoing the one who could unravel her with a single knowing look Their affair became an addiction a secret language of shared risk where the taste of his mouth was more potent than any success and the scent of her perfume on his collar was a promise of the ruin to come That night was supposed to be an exception a singular lapse in judgment But when there are no barriers you don't just let someone in you let them see everything They didn't just break the rules they broke each other open discovering a raw desperate hunger that threatened to consume their careers his engagement and her carefully constructed life Because once you know what it feels like to be truly seen by someone putting the walls back up is no longer an option Contents The Fortress 1 The Victory 19 The Celebration 39 The Point of No Return 59 The Transgression 77 The Morning After 99 The Relapse 119 The New Dynamic 139 Raw and Unfiltered 161 The Acceptance 179 The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night Leonard Charles Smithers, 1894 The Night Ship Alex Woodroe, 2026-01-20 An apocalyptic world turned into a pitch black sea of nothingness but smuggler Rosi and her crew
