The Future Internet Jenifer Winter, Ryota

Ono,2015-12-14 Readers seeking to gain a handle on the internet's global expansion will find this book rich in scholarly foundations combined with cutting edge discussion of emerging ICTs and services and the complex societal contexts in which they are embedded To explore possibilities to the fullest extent a sociotechnical systems approach is employed focusing on the interplay of technical social cultural political and economic dynamics to explore alternative futures ones that are not part of the dominant discourse about the internet These shared perspectives are not well addressed elsewhere in current discussions Awareness of these dynamics and the fluidity of the future is important as humankind moves forward into the uncertain future Due to the sociotechnical complexity of the Internet policymakers businesspeople and academics worldwide have struggled to keep abreast of developments This volume's approach is intended to stimulate dialogue between academics and practitioners on a topic that will affect most aspects of human life in the near term future

The American Cities and Technology Reader Gerrylynn K. Roberts,1999 Designed to be used on its own or as a companion volume to the textbook this book offers in depth readings on the technological dimensions of US cities from the earliest settlements to the internet communications of the 1990s

Media Fortunes, Changing Times Russell Hiang-Kheng Heng,2003-08-01 This book examines how media have brought about or paced dramatic political events in Southeast Asia over the last two decades It highlights a situation where media dynamics are no longer a simple formula of state control versus media resistance The state can propel its own media liberalizing programme civil society can be an enemy of press freedom market forces and cultural mindsets are sometimes more potent agents of change than state appointed media custodians Practitioners scholars and activists have come together in this volume to provide a diversity of narratives on subjects as varied as powerful politicians and marginalized transsexuals

National Strategic Planning and Practice Liaquat Hossain,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 This text explores the relationship between telecommunications strategic planning process TSPP the organization and the environment for developing an understanding of the idea of a national TSPP NTSP in Thailand The overall aim is to explore an understanding of an NTSP by providing a detailed study of the strategic planning and practices of the Thai telecom regulators during the period from 1954 to 1996 It applies the strategic planning process principles to further the understanding of NTSP in Thailand By using the SPP framework the study develops a theoretical TSPP framework for analyzing the underlying TSPP strategies within the national telecom regulators in Thailand It also seeks to illustrate the limitations of the traditional strategic planning theory when applied to NTSP From a theoretical perspective this book illustrates that a lack of formalization and consensus in Thailand's NTSP is the fundamental backlog for the successful operation of its industry professionals The past ten conference volumes represent a substantial contribution towards providing a forum for discussion and interchange of information ideas and expressions of views regarding telecommunications in the Pacific The years have presented many changes and challenges a chronology of the annual conference themes and papers testify to the growth and breadth of telecommunication in the Pacific hemisphere The occasion of the tenth anniversary conference provided an opportunity to look back at what PTC has accomplished Over the past decade more than 750 papers have been generated by hundreds of telecommunication professionals The knowledge represents a significant foundation for the future PTC 88 was organized around a model involving the telecommunication user the provider and the marketplace influenced by government regulation and open competition More than 85 papers are contained in this volume with contributions from more than 20 countries Seventeen sessions of five to six papers each present a wide range of Pacific telecommunication concerns In some cases background papers are provided for special sessions and working groups The volume will be of considerable interest to
