Spring Is Here:

The First Hollywood Musicals Edwin M. Bradley, 2004-08-25 As Hollywood entered the sound era it was rightly determined that the same public fascinated by the novelty of the talkie would be dazzled by the spectacle of a song and dance film In 1929 and 1930 film musicals became the industry's most lucrative genre until the greedy studios almost killed the genre by glutting the market with too many films that looked and sounded like clones of each other From the classy movies such as Sunnyside Up and Hallelujah to failures such as The Lottery Bride and Howdy Broadway this filmography details 171 early Hollywood musicals Arranged by subgenre backstagers operettas college films and stage derived musical comedies the entries include studio release date cast and credits running time a complete song list any recordings spawned by the film Academy Award nominations and winners and availability on video or laserdisc These data are followed by a plot synopsis including analysis of the film's place in the genre's history Includes over 90 photographs Spring is Here Lois Lenski, 1945 A poem describing spring and what the children do when it comes Asaph William Mason, 1861 Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1946 Spring Is Here Taro Gomi, 2012-09-14 A winsome calf provides the backdrop literally for this charming story With each turn of the page the young animal is imaginatively transformed to reflect some activity of the four seasons snow melting seedlings springing up harvest all the way to the snow melting again and revealing that the calf has grown The story line follows the cycle of the seasons from one spring to the next and its spare fluid text wedded to the vigorous graphics vividly conveys the underlying themes of renewal and growth The colors are joyful and fresh and the artist's playful approach to perspective makes this a lovely picture book Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
