

Snow White And Russian Red

Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski

Snow White And Russian Red:

Snow White and Russian Red Dorota Masłowska, 2005 Reminiscent of Irvine Welsh's Trainspotting this audacious debut novel is a fresh and surprising portrait of marginalized fatalistic post Communist youth It is the story of Andrzej Nails Robakowski who unravels after his girlfriend Magda dumps him

Rumpelstiltskin's Secret Harry Rand, 2019-12-09 Everyone knows Rumpelstiltskin's story or thinks they do But this innocent seeming tale hides generations of women's shrewd accounts of their relationships with men And the verdict is not flattering The fairytale may count among the world's oldest dirty jokes The theme of the tale an observation repeated and varied throughout mocks male inadequacy in many forms beginning with sexual failure The punchline misplaced over time its wickedly funny insights about adult life passed for childish nonsense The story hides in plain sight criticism of workplace sexual harassment centuries before society took notice of the indignity Rumpelstiltskin tells a feminist tale with lessons for men and women about what women said to each other when they thought their private conversation and complaints passed unnoticed In the story's different versions the Brothers Grimm who recorded the tale missed women's wry observations

Polish Literature as World Literature Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski, 2022-12-15 This carefully curated collection consists of 16 chapters by leading Polish and world literature scholars from the United States Canada Italy and of course Poland An historical approach gives readers a panoramic view of Polish authors and their explicit or implicit contributions to world literature Indeed the volume shows how Polish authors from Jan Kochanowski in the 16th century to the 2018 Nobel laureate Olga Tokarczuk have engaged with their foreign counterparts and other traditions active participants in the global literary network and the conversations of their day The volume features views of Polish literature and culture within theories of world literature and literary systems with a particular attention paid to the resurgence of the idea of the physical book as a cultural artifact This perspective is especially important since so much of today's global literary output stems from Anglophone perceptions of what constitutes literary quality and tastes The collection also sheds light on specific issues pertaining to Poland such as the idea of Polishness and global phenomena including social and economic advancement as well as ecological degradation Some of the authors discussed like the Romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz or the 1980 Nobel laureate Czesław Miłosz were renowned far beyond the borders of their country while others like the contemporary travel writer and novelist Andrzej Stasiuk embrace regionalism seeing as they do in their immediate surroundings a synecdoche of the world at large Nevertheless the picture of Polish literature and Polish authors that emerges from these articles is that of a diverse cosmopolitan cohort engaged in a mutually rewarding relationship with what the late French critic Pascale Casanova has called the world republic of letters

Europe Old and New Ray Taras, 2008-07-31 Is Europe indeed uniting or instead falling apart as a result of anti immigrant prejudices a massive Islamic influx and ancient intra European hatreds This innovative and engaging book explores this key question by examining the national and religious phobias and prejudices antipathies and sympathies stereotypes and heterotypes of

Europe west and east Considering the sources of Europe's culture based divide Ray Taras argues that the idea of two Europes is grounded both in reality and myth The accession process that brought a dozen new members into the European Union after 2004 highlighted the persisting gulf between old and new Europe While many concrete borders between east and west were removed commercial legal passport regimes many remained absence of a single Euro currency zone labor market and security community Virtual borders too were invented or re imagined the postmaterialist inclusionary tolerant values supposedly found in old Europe versus the materialist nationalistic xenophobic ones of new Europe After reviewing the two Europes contrasting historical legacies Taras examines the EU institutions designed to overcome the historical European divide He considers the treaties political rhetoric citizen attitudes and literary narratives of belonging and separation that both bind and fray the fabric of Europe Throughout this interdisciplinary work provides a comprehensive hard hitting and unabashed review of how enlarged Europe embraces contrasting understandings of its political home and of who belongs and who does not

Key Cultural Texts in Translation Kirsten Malmkjær, Adriana Șerban, Fransiska Louwagie, 2018-05-15 In the context of increased movement across borders this book examines how key cultural texts and concepts are transferred between nations and languages as well as across different media The texts examined in this book are considered fundamental to their source culture and can also take on a particular relevance to other target cultures The chapters investigate cultural transfers and differences realised through translation and reflect critically upon the implications of these with regard to matters of cultural identity The book offers an important contribution to cultural approaches in translation studies with ramifications across different disciplines including literary studies history philosophy and gender studies The chapters offer a range of cultural and methodological frameworks and are written by scholars from a variety of language and cultural backgrounds Western and Eastern

No End in Sight Anna Krakus, 2018-07-10 No End in Sight offers a critical analysis of Polish cinema and literature during the transformative late Socialist period of the 1970s and 1980s Anna Krakus details how conceptions of time permanence and endings shaped major Polish artistic works She further demonstrates how film and literature played a major role in shaping political consciousness during this highly charged era Despite being controlled by an authoritarian state and the doctrine of socialism artists were able to portray the unsettled nature of the political and psychological climate of the period and an undetermined future In analyzing films by Andrzej Wajda Krzysztof Kieslowski Krzysztof Zanussi Wojciech Has and Tadeusz Konwicki alongside Konwicki's literary production Anna Krakus identifies their shared penchant to defer or completely eschew narrative closure whether in plot theme or style Krakus calls this artistic tendency aesthetic unfinalizability As she reveals aesthetic unfinalizability was far more than an occasional artistic preference or a passing trend it was a radical counterpolitical act The obsession with historical teleology saturated Polish public life during socialism to such a degree that instances of nonclosure or ambivalent endings emerged as polemical responses to official ideology
