Narrating Nonhuman Spaces Marco Caracciolo, Marlene Karlsson Marcussen, David Rodriguez, 2021-08-18 Recent debates about the Anthropocene have prompted a re negotiation of the relationship between human subjectivity and nonhuman matter within a wide range of disciplines This collection builds on the assumption that our understanding of the nonhuman world is bound up with the experience of space thinking about and with nonhuman spaces destabilizes human scale assumptions Literary form affords this kind of nonanthropocentric experience one role of the critic in the Anthropocene is to foreground the function of space and description in challenging the conventional link between narrative and human inter subjectivity Bringing together New Formalism ecocriticism and narrative theory the included essays demonstrate that literature can transgress the strong and long established boundary of the human frame that literary and narrative scholarship clings to The focus is firmly on the contemporary but with strategic samplings in earlier cultural texts the American transcendentalists modernist fiction that anticipate present day anxieties about the nonhuman while at the same time offering important conceptual tools for working through them The Snowman's Path Helena Clare Pittman, 2000

After following a magical snowman on his nightly rounds Nathan makes friends with him and discovers a way to make him happy before the snowman must leave Flury: Journey of a Snowman Tony Bertauski, 2014-11-15 Life hasn t been kind to Oliver Toye As if juvenile diabetes isn t enough he s forced to live with his tyrannical grandmother in a snow bound house He spends his days doing chores and the nights listening to the forest rumble But when he discovers the first leather bound journal the family secrets begin to surface The mystery of his great grandfather s voyage to the North Pole is revealed That s when the snowman appears Magical and mysterious the snowman will save Oliver more than once But when the time comes for Oliver to discover the truth will he have the courage When Flury needs him will he have the strength When believing isn t enough will he save the snowman from melting away Because sometimes even magic needs a little help INTERVIEW WITH AUTHOR Where did you come up with the idea of writing science fiction for holiday characters My nephew mentioned the secret Santa ninja elves that visit his school during Christmas and this spawned the idea of writing a semi serious sci fi version of Santa How the ideas flesh out is a long process I started keep track of how the story arc of my latest novel evolves just to remember where it began It s all over the place I love the challenge of bringing a story to light letting the characters get in my head and telling me where to go Flury Journey of a Snowman is the third book in the Claus series It was originally Frosty the Snowman but Frosty is copyrighted It didn t matter really The character was better suited to be something other than Frosty Flury is a bit more serious Are you getting any backlash for rewriting these Christmas legends Not at all In fact a lot of readers have connected to all the unanswered questions surround them especially Santa Claus How does he go around the world in a night Why is he fat Why does he live on the North Pole How do reindeer fly How does he carry all those presents All of them answered with the magic wand of science fiction I mean the science wand of science fiction The stories still have the fantasy element of course Some leaps of imagination And also the romance angle Why Because all stories have love What is your favorite character from the books that you have written Socket Greeny is one of my favorites That science fiction trilogy was my first story I wrote it in first person and really connected with him However Jack Frost is in Claus Legend of the Fat Man and Jack The Tale of Frost and has become my all time fave He s childish irreverent and dangerous but at the same time lovable What order should readers purchase the Claus books Claus Legend of the Fat Man is the best
