Knowledge in the Printed Book of the Early Modern Period ,2004-12-01 The printed book the most important invention of the early modern period brought about not only an explosion of knowledge but also major changes in the perception of texts This volume investigates the methods by which knowledge was presented to the early modern reader and the organisation of material that guided his cognition of them It focuses not merely on book historical questions but on the intersection of layout and paratexts with issues of genre content and intended function of texts A team of experts in various disciplines English French German Neo Latin philosophy art history the history of science and book history makes a first effort to understanding this fascinating topic Contributors include Maximilian Bergengruen Manuel Braun Kai Bremer Karl A E Enenkel Romy G nthart Detlef Haberland Frans A Janssen J rg Jungmayr Ursula Kocher Robert Luff Ann Moss Wolfgang Neuber Matthijs van Otegem Hilmar M Pabel Thomas Rahn Paul J Smith Dietmar Till Ian F Verstegen and Claus Zittel

Museums as Cultures of Copies Brita Brenna,Hans Dam Christensen,Olav Hamran,2018-12-07 Few institutions are warier of copies than museums Few fields of knowledge are more prone to denounce copies as fake than the heritage field Few discourses are as concerned with authenticity aura originals and provenance as those concerning exhibiting and collecting So why is it that these are institutions fields and discourses where copies proliferate and copying techniques have thrived for hundreds of years Museums as Cultures of Copies aims to make the copying practices of museums visible and to discuss from a range of interrelated perspectives precisely what function copies fulfil in the heritage field and in museums today With contributions from Europe and Canada the book interrogates the meaning of copies and presents copying as a fully integrated part of museum work Including chapters on ethnographic mannequins digitalized photos death masks museum documentation and mechanical models contributors consider how copying as a cultural form changes according to time and place and how new forms of copying and copy technologies challenge and expand museum work today Arguing that copying is at the basis of museum practice and that new technologies and practices have been taken up and developed in museums since their inception the book presents both heritage work and copies in a new light Museums as Cultures of Copies should be of great interest to academics scholars and postgraduate students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies as well as visual studies cultural history and archaeology It should also be essential reading for museum practitioners

Republican Baroque Frans-Willem Korsten,2025-10-01 In the Dutch Republic in its Baroque forms of art two aesthetic formal modes theatre and drama were dynamically related to two political concepts event and moment The Dutch version of the Baroque is characterised by a fascination with this world regarded as one possibility out of a plurality of potential worlds It is this fascination that explains the coincidence in the Dutch Republic strange at first sight of Baroque exuberance irregularity paradox and vertigo with scientific rigor regularity mathematical logic and rational distance In giving a new historical perspective on the Baroque as a specifically Dutch republican one this study also offers a new and systematic approach towards the interactions among the notions of theatricality dramatisation moment and event concepts that are currently at the centre of philosophical and political debates but the modern articulation of which can best be considered in the explorations of history and world in the Dutch Republic Information for the People: Or, Treasury of Useful Knowledge

Robert Sears,1847 Forgetting Machines: Knowledge Management Evolution in Early Modern Europe Alberto Cevolini,2016-10-11 We are so accustomed to use digital memories as data storage devices that we are oblivious to the improbability of such a practice Habit hides what we habitually use To understand the worldwide success of archives and card indexing systems that allow to remember more because they allow to forget more than before the evolution of scholarly practices and the transformation of cognitive habits in the early modern age must be investigated This volume contains contributions by nearly every distinguished scholar in the field of early modern knowledge management and filing systems and offers a remarkable synthesis of the present state of scholarship A final section explores some current issues in record keeping and note taking systems and provides valuable cues for future research Philosophical Works: Preliminary discourse by the editor.
