Frankweiler Novel Study/Lit Link Gr. 4-6* Nat Reed,2009-02-02 The adventures of Claudia Kincaid a precocious 11 year old and her younger brother at a national museum and a grand mansion will motivate your students interest while completing the various activities in this Lit Link Chapter by chapter questions will strengthen students reading comprehension and assist them in developing critical thinking and emotional development The vocabulary and word study activities are designed to improve literacy skills in an enjoyable way Novel by E L Konigsburg Plus a story summary author biography and answer key 64 pages About the Novel Claudia is a young girl who feels she is under appreciated by her parents and decides to run away from home with her younger brother They set up temporary residence in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City There they encounter a beautiful statue of an angel with mysterious origins They soon discover that many experts believe the piece to have been sculptured by the famous artist Michelangelo The children decide to make it their mission to discover the true origins of this masterpiece This mission takes them to the previous owner the rich and eccentric Mrs Basil E

Frankweiler who allows the children only one hour to search through her files to find out the answer to the mystery Flat Stanley Lit Link Gr. 1-3 ,2006-05-12 Stanley is a nice average boy who leads a nice ordinary life Then one day a bulletin board falls on him and suddenly Stanley is as flat as a pancake Being flat he gets to have interesting adventures but he also experiences a roller coaster of emotions He is mailed in a large envelope to California to visit a friend His brother Arthur flies Stanley the Kite in the park Then Stanley thinks of a brilliant idea to help the director of the Famous Museum of Art to catch the gang of sneak thieves He stops a crime and becomes a hero Despite all the attention Stanley wishes he were normal again can anyone help him Reproducible chapter questions plus comprehension questions a story summary author biography creative and cross curricular activities complete with answer key Teacher Inquiries in Literacy Teaching-Learning Christine C. Pappas,Liliana Barro Zecker,Liliana Zecker,2001-01-01 This book consists of the reports of 13 urban elementary teacher researchers year long inquiries around literacy topics conducted as part of a collaborative school university action research project The focus is on how they attempted to transform their teaching practices to meet the needs of students from diverse ethnic and linguistic backgrounds and how their inquiry efforts resulted in developing more collaborative styles of teaching These teachers explore how collaborative classroom interactions occur when teachers move away from teaching as transmission approaches to ones in which they share power and authority with their students viewing them not as at risk but instead as at promise Because the everyday interactions between teachers and students are realized by social talk in the classroom classroom discourse was analyzed to study and document the teacher researchers efforts to make changes in the locus of power in literacy teaching and learning Their chapters are filled with classroom discourse examples to illustrate their points The volume includes teacher inquiries conducted in elementary classrooms from kindergarten through eighth grade Three took place in bilingual classrooms one in a special education class These inquiries cover a range of literacy topics including reading aloud language richness writing literature discussion groups drama and pretend reading The background and theoretical underpinnings of the project are discussed in an introduction written by the editors in the conclusion they pull together the major themes in the teacher researchers chapters and discuss the political implications of their efforts to change literacy teaching and learning in their urban classrooms The University Extension Bulletin ,1893
