There is one final step: building a coalition of other like-minded business leaders to create a sustainable strategy for the future. Business leaders in Phoenix are focused on creating value for their customers, and the good news is that the city government is working to create a more vibrant and sustainable city for the future. With the help of the business leaders, the city government will be able to create a more vibrant and sustainable city for the future.

It is not until a couple months later, however, that the real money comes in. Although he manages to get a couple $500,000 in preproduction funds from his pals at Miramax and nearby Los Angeles-based investors, he is forced to raise the rest of the $10 million on his own. And he does so by the skin of his teeth. He eventually has to knock on the doors of the studios, and he ends up with Miramax's cash in the St. Regis Hotel in Manhattan. He has to beg, borrow, and steal to get the money he needs to get the movie made. But, he makes it. And, he makes it big. Boys n the Hood is a smash hit, earning nearly $10 million in theaters and $10 million in video sales.

The Agreement Of Religions

Simeon Ross Macphail

The Agreement Of Religions:

Critical Terms for Religious Studies Mark C. Taylor, 2013-07-09 A century that began with modernism sweeping across Europe is ending with a remarkable resurgence of religious beliefs and practices throughout the world. Wherever one looks today from headlines about political turmoil in the Middle East to pop music and videos one cannot escape the pivotal role of religious beliefs and practices in shaping selves, societies and cultures. Following in the very successful tradition of Critical Terms for Literary Studies and Critical Terms for Art History this book attempts to provide a revitalized self-aware vocabulary with which this bewildering religious diversity can be accurately described and responsibly discussed. Leading scholars working in a variety of traditions demonstrate through their incisive discussions that even our most basic terms for understanding religion are not neutral but carry specific historical and conceptual freight. These essays adopt the approach that has won this book's predecessors such widespread acclaim: each provides a concise history of a critical term, explores the issues raised by the term and puts the term to use in an analysis of a religious work, practice or event. Moving across Judaism, Christianity, Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam and Native American and Mayan religions, contributors explore terms ranging from experience, territory and image to God, sacrifice and transgression. The result is an essential reference that will reshape the field of religious studies and transform the way in which religion is understood by scholars from all disciplines, including anthropology, sociology, psychology, cultural studies, gender studies and literary studies.

Unearthing Policies of Instrumentalization in English Religious Education Using Statement Archaeology Jonathan Doney, 2021-01-01 This book presents the theoretical basis and practical steps involved in using Statement Archaeology, an innovative method that enhances understandings of policy development, exemplifying its use in relation to one curriculum subject: Religious Education. The book is the first of its kind to fully describe the theoretical foundations of Statement Archaeology and the practical steps in its deployment, acting as a methodological handbook that will enable readers to use the method subsequently in their own research. Further, the book offers an unparalleled contribution to the historical account of the development and maintenance of compulsory RE in English state-maintained schools and uses this to engage with key current debates in Religious Education policy. It unearths important insights into how the present is built, informs future policy direction and potential implementation strategies and helps prevent the repetition of unsuccessful past endeavours. This book will be of great interest for academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of religious education, educational policy and politics and research methods in education.
