Geheber,2019-01-09 As the first book length study to bring the fields of modernism and food studies together Modernism and Food Studies anchors the burgeoning field of modernist food studies This volume collects theoretically and methodologically diverse essays that investigate modernist representations of food broadly treated in phases from production to distribution and consumption By exploring the profound relationship between modernist aesthetics and the new food cultures of modernity Modernism and Food Studies uncovers new links between seemingly disparate spaces cultures and artistic media in a globalizing world Consumption and the Literary Cookbook Roxanne Harde,Janet Wesselius,2020-11-18 Consumption and the Literary Cookbook offers readers the first book length study of literary cookbooks Imagining the genre more broadly to include narratives laden with recipes cookbooks based on cultural productions including films plays and television series and cookbooks that reflected and or shaped cultural and historical narratives the contributors draw on the tools of literary and cultural studies to closely read a diverse corpus of cookbooks By focusing on themes of consumption gastronomical and rhetorical the sixteen chapters utilize the recipes and the narratives surrounding them as lenses to study identity society history and culture The chapters in this book reflect the current popularity of foodie culture as they offer entertaining analyses of cookbooks the stories they tell and the stories told about them "Recipes like floating islands" Chloe Alice Chappe,2016 My project is an exploration of various dimensions of The Alice B Toklas Cook Book The cook book is a cook book but it is also a collection and an autobiography The recipes in the book originated in Alice s physical recipe collection box which began when she was a child and continued throughout her life The autobiographical narrative develops out of the memories that were created around each recipe Because of the compilation of memories that are attached to each of the recipes in the collection Alice writes her life story through her recipes Each recipe represents a person place and specific time in her life As she uncovers and reads her recipes her memories are catalyzed and thus her life writing act proceeds as well Julia Child MFK Fisher Brillat Savarin and Proust are a few food minded writers who help shed light on both the cook book function and memoir aspect of The ABT Cook Book in my paper All of the stories in the book come out of the recipes but memory is the driving force that arises out of those recipes The recipes appear as one critic said 2like floating islands 3 which is to say seemingly haphazard But the haphazardness of the recipes is a manifestation of the way Alice remembers her life the recipes lead her narrative Food and Culture in the Works of Ford Madox Ford, Gertrude Stein, and Virginia Woolf Nanette O'Brien,Nanette O'Brien,2024 Tracing a line of transatlantic aesthetics and gendered productions of modernism this monograph reveals the centrality of agriculture cookery domestic work and institutional dining to modernist authors Murder in the Kitchen Alice B. Toklas,2011-04-07 In this memoir turned cookbook Alice B Toklas describes her life with partner Gertrude Stein and their famed Paris salon which entertained the great avant garde and literary figures of their day With dry wit and characteristic understatement Toklas ponders the ethics of killing a carp in her kitchen before stuffing it with chestnuts decorating a fish to amuse Picasso at lunch and travelling across France during the First World War in an old delivery truck gathering local recipes along the way She includes a friend's playful recipe for Haschiche Fudge which promises brilliant storms of laughter and ecstatic reveries much like her book
