The American Long Poem Stephen Fender, 1977      Phenomenology and the Late Twentieth-Century American Long Poem Matthew Carbery, 2019-01-04 Phenomenology and the Late Twentieth Century American Long Poem reads major figures including Charles Olson Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey Susan Howe and Rachel Blau DuPlessis within a new approach to the long poem tradition Through a series of contextualised close readings it explores the ways in which American poets developed their poetic forms by engaging with a variety of European phenomenologists including Hannah Arendt Maurice Merleau Ponty Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Consolidating recent materials on the role of Continental Philosophy in American poetics this book explores the theoretical and historical contexts in which avant garde poets have developed radically new methods of making poems long Matthew Carbery offers a timely commentary on a number of major works of American poetry whilst providing ground breaking research into the wider philosophical context of late twentieth century poetic experimentation      Edinburgh Companion to Don DeLillo and the Arts Catherine Gander, 2023-07-04 The Edinburgh Companion to Don DeLillo and the Arts is the first book to provide a comprehensive study of Don DeLillo's career long engagements with the visual literary digital and televisual performing filmic and spatial arts Gathering original essays from a diverse range of international contributors including established voices in DeLillo criticism and emerging experts the volume forges new paths in the study of one of the greatest authors of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Beginning with a section dedicated to experiential and political aesthetics in DeLillo's work the Companion offers new perspectives on the forms and functions of the arts across DeLillo's entire oeuvre from his first novel Americana through his plays essays short stories to his latest novel The Silence This exciting Companion is a genuine intervention in DeLillo scholarship by offering an interdisciplinary examination of his work across forms media method and theory      Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry Daniela Kukrechtová, 2025-07-10 Reveals how five modern American poets challenged prevailing discourses about urbanization through lyrical representations of cities and the diverse people who lived in them In early 20th century America industrialization and the influx of immigrants and rural migrants into urban centers fostered a certain representation of and distaste for cities and their inhabitants The dominant discourse was one of containment through utopian planning and violent reshaping often reflected in both policy making and writings about cities during this time Yet as Daniela Kukrechtová identifies urban literature also reveals voices that challenged that narrative Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry shows how the formally innovative works of five poets Jean Toomer William Carlos Williams Hart Crane Frank O'Hara and Gwendolyn Brooks worked against anti urban discourse Their works displayed a love for disorderly cityscapes and the actual urbanites who inhabit them promoting the radical idea that cities were for people while revealing the extreme dystopian utopian discourses that helped create and maintain divisions and disparities Kukrechtová argues that besides offering a radical critique these poets also used their poetry to imagine the mental and emotional attitudes of urban dwellers toward their environment She therefore offers the urban ecocritical approach often missing in literary analyses of modern American poetry Simultaneously the lyrical and socially engaged imagination in these works that is the human implications of various plans designs and policies that helped create the modern American city represent a voice often unheard in urban studies and its history Ezra Pound and Referentiality Hélène Aji,2003 Poetry Information ,1978 The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
