According to a 2020 poll, Please don't vote at all if you don't think these are alternative enough, no one really discussed this in my opinion, so I just called it as "subculture" who would have been called some by people who don't know much about the subcultures.

The Alternative:

The Alternative Augustan Age Kit Morrell, Josiah Osgood, Kathryn Welch, 2019 This book boldly reinterprets the central period of Roman history by taking the focus off the emperor Augustus. Its chapters highlight the contributions of other individuals and continuities with republican culture. Together they show that Augustus has been more dominant in later memory than he was in his own lifetime. Enter the Alternative School Alia R. Tyner-Mullings, 2015-11-17 Enter the Alternative School is an in-depth examination of public school alternatives to traditional educational models in the US. This book analyses how urban education can respond to a system growing increasingly standardised and privatised. As an example Central Park East Secondary School (CPESS) a public alternative schooling model successfully served predominantly low-income and minority students. It also changed the New York City public school system while promoting methods that allowed educational institutions to make changes in the lives of their students. Written by a sociologist who was both a student at CPESS and a teacher at a school developed from the CPESS model the book analyses education from a range of vantage points. It assesses outcomes and invites readers to consider the potential of alternative educational models to address the challenges of reforms that attempt to provide quality education to the low-income and minority students otherwise under-served by public schools. The Alternative Tradition James Thrower, 1980 The series Religion and Society (RS) contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non-Western societies. In particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art, economy, law and politics. Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual, the religious imagination, constructions of tradition, iconography or media. In addition the formation of religious communities, their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series. The Alternative Energy Handbook Paul Rosenberg, 1993
