Lee,2012-12-06 The purpose of the China Energy Technology Program CETP has been to take a holistic view of electricity generation in China with special emphasis on the economic and environmental impact of technology The program is a collaborative effort involving industry as leader and manager of the program researchers from academia and national research institutes and the stakeholders users or planners of the electricity market A power plant no matter of what kind is not a solitary unit which may be considered independently from its environment Modern society has been built on easy access to power it is now asking for environmentally clean power Clean power is the pathway that will lead to sustainability an extension of the concept of an environmentally clean future Progress toward a sustainable technical solution must include an evaluation of the environmental economic and societal impact of electrical power generation To achieve the goals of the CETP program we wanted to go beyond what had been done in similar programs in the past Its organizers wanted the program not only to evaluate the overall impact of electricity generation but also do it in such a way that program results could be applied and adapted to different circumstances including countries other than China For this purpose we have developed a methodology and presented it on a DVD disc which the reader will find inside the back cover of this book The methodology is conceived to allow insights into the function of the program on various levels West Africa ,2002 Earthwise ,2004 Struggling With Their Histories Alan J. DeYoung,1991 This monograph draws on case studies of school community partnership projects in four rural southeastern school districts in order to elaborate a thorough description of school contextual factors in the rural Southeast In 1986 Appalachia Educational Laboratory AEL one of nine federally funded research and development laboratories received funding as part of a rural initiative to address economic decline and educational opportunities in rural areas The following year AEL implemented demonstration projects in Braxton County West Virginia Charlotte County Virginia and two Tennessee and Kentucky counties identified by pseudonyms The goal of the 2 year project was to help rural schools and communities identify problem areas for school improvement and to analyze community and economic factors contributing to economic decline Chapter 1 describes methodologies focal concerns and project implementation Chapters 2 5 present the four case studies focusing on community and school leadership dynamics and providing a historical analysis of each county s economic political and sociological context The last chapter expands on the general theme that previous and current social economic and political conditions surrounding rural schools affect present educational conditions and school improvement strategies and practices This chapter also describes recent 1990 dynamics in each county and assesses school improvement practices implemented by AEL Contains references and author and subject indexes LP American Demographics ,2001
