Experiences and Their Results Michael Agerskov, 1979 This is an account of some of the personal psychic experiences of Johanne and Michael Agerskov which eventually led to the prodigal son's return to God and the subsequent publication of the three transcendental works known collectively as the Books of Toward the Light. In recounting those experiences the author sought to demonstrate to the logical mind that the human spirit transcends death and that behind the visible world there are invisible intelligences from another dimension who can intervene to bring us knowledge of the transcendental world

My Experiences in Spiritualism Catherine Berry, 1872 Living in the Borderland Jerome S. Bernstein, 2006-02-01

Living in the Borderland addresses the evolution of Western consciousness and describes the emergence of the Borderland a spectrum of reality that is beyond the rational yet is palpable to an increasing number of individuals. Building on Jungian theory Jerome Bernstein argues that a greater openness to transrational reality experienced by Borderland personalities allows new possibilities for understanding and healing confounding clinical and developmental enigmas. There are many people whose experiences of reality is outside the mainstream of Western culture often they see themselves as abnormal because they have no articulated frame of reference for their experience. The concept of the Borderland personality explains much of their experience. In three sections this book examines the psychological and clinical implications of the evolution of consciousness and looks at how the new Borderland consciousness bridges the mind body divide. Subjects covered include Genesis Evolution of the Western Ego Transrational Data in a Western Clinical Context Synchronicity Trauma and Borderland Transcendence Environmental Illness Complex Integration of Navajo and Western healing approaches for Borderland Personalities. Living in the Borderland challenges the standard clinical model which views normality as an absence of pathology and which equates normality with the rational. Jerome S Bernstein describes how psychotherapy itself often contributes to the alienation of Borderland personalities by misperceiving the difference between the pathological and the sacred. The case studies included illustrate the potential this has for causing serious psychic and emotional damage to the patient. This challenge to the orthodoxies and complacencies of Western medicine's concept of pathology will interest Jungian Analysts Psychotherapists Psychiatrists and other physicians as well as educators of children. Jerome S Bernstein is a Jungian Analyst in private practice in Santa Fe New Mexico

Ritual Healing in Suburban America Meredith B. McGuire, Debra Kantor, 1988 Many Americans believe that people who practice folk healing are uneducated and too poor to afford conventional medical care. Contrary to this popular belief Meredith McGuire finds that a large number of college educated middle class suburbanites participate in a variety of nonmedical healing groups. In suburban New Jersey people practice such diverse alternatives as psychic healing New Age therapies naturopathy Christian Science Transcendental Meditation reflexology acupuncture yoga Jain meditation Therapeutic Touch reflexology shiatsu rebirthing and occult therapies. McGuire places these various healing groups into broader categories according to their traditional sources of inspiration and their beliefs about healing power. She then looks at the participants diverse ideas about health and illness. By locating alternative healing in the context of these beliefs she shows the many ways the adherents experience ritual healing From publisher s description After Her Death Lilian Whiting,1897 Handbook of Psychiatry Michael Shepherd,1983 Psychoenergetic Systems ,1977 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1871 The Psychoanalytic Review ,1973 Contemporary theory and practice of psychoanalysis The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman,1871 The Quartier Latin Trist Wood,1897 Famous Psychic and Ghost Stories Joseph Walker McSpadden,1938 Light ,1890 Man and the Spiritual World Arthur Chambers,1900 Canadian Review of Studies in Nationalism ,1976 Some Psychic Experiences Mrs. Philip Champion de Crespigny,1917
