Some Cities:

Some Cities and San Francisco, and Resurgam Hubert Howe Bancroft, 2019-12-13 In Some Cities and San Francisco and Resurgam Hubert Howe Bancroft adopts a meticulously detailed narrative style to explore the development of urban life in America with a particular focus on San Francisco. Through a combination of historical accounts, socio-economic analyses, and cultural insights, Bancroft chronicles the rise of key urban centers, illustrating their triumphs and challenges during a dynamic period of American expansion and transformation. His work reflects the broader literary context of 19th-century American literature, characterized by an emerging interest in local histories and the interplay between cities and their environments. Hubert Howe Bancroft, a prominent historian and ethnographer of the American West, was deeply influenced by his experiences in California and the broader socio-political landscape of the time. His extensive travels, voracious reading, and interactions with indigenous cultures shaped his perspective, prompting him to craft this significant work. Bancroft's commitment to documenting the multifaceted nature of American urban development stems from his belief in history as a narrative of human endeavor and resilience. I wholeheartedly recommend Some Cities and San Francisco and Resurgam to readers interested in urban history, sociology, and the American experience. Bancroft's insightful observations and thorough research make this book an essential addition to any scholar's library, offering invaluable perspectives on the complexities of urban growth and community restoration. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works, unifying features, themes, or stylistic evolutions. A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era, social currents, cultural trends, and key events that underpin their creation. A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts, helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists. A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection, tying the stories together while spotlighting the different works' strengths. Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author's overarching message, inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts. Lastly, our hand-picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points, serving as touchstones for the collection's central themes.

Sustainable Cities Reimagined Stanislav E. Shmelev, 2019-10-22 To assess urban sustainability performance, this book explores several clusters of cities, including megacities, cities of the Global South, European and North American cities, cities of the Middle East and North Africa, cities of Central and South East Asia, a city-state of Singapore, and a large group of global cities. It applies a multi-criteria approach using a panel of environmental, economic, social, and smart indicators to assess progress and policies in global cities, including London, New York, Hong Kong, San Francisco, Los Angeles, São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Paris, Berlin, Stockholm, Moscow, Beijing, Seoul, Singapore, Shanghai, Sydney, Tokyo, and many others. Additional attention is given to the issues of climate change, poverty, and smart dimensions with renewable energy and the drivers of urban CO₂ emissions, playing the central role. This book is abundant with case studies considering strategies policies and performance of the leading cities including San Francisco Stockholm and Seoul in greater depth exploring how their successes can be used by other cities The book identifies key linkages between different smart and sustainability dimensions as well as investment opportunities in cities with sustainability potential This book will be of great interest to policy makers city and regional authorities as well as scholars and students of urban planning and sustainable development aiming to facilitate a sustainability transition in our cities around the world
