Tito Vignoli,1882 The Myth of Psychotherapy Thomas Szasz,2015-02-01 The Myth of Psychotherapy is a provocative critique of psychotherapy and its role in modern society Szasz contends that mental illness itself is a myth a construct used to justify psychiatric intervention and social control He examines how therapists offer guidance and moral judgment under the guise of medical treatment and explores how psychotherapy has been used as a tool for repression shaping individuals to conform to societal norms rather than addressing genuine medical conditions Szasz challenges the legitimacy of psychiatric diagnoses and the therapeutic industry arguing that personal struggles should be understood as problems in living rather than as medical disorders His work is deeply philosophical questioning the ethical implications of labeling individuals as mentally ill and subjecting them to treatment 50 Great Myths of Popular Psychology Steven Jay Lynn,John Ruscio,2010 Uses popular myths as a vehicle for helping students and laypersons to distinguish science from pseudoscience This book explores topics that readers relate to but often misunderstand such as opposites attract a people use only 10 per cent of their brains and handwriting reveals your personality On the Foundational Principles of Rehabilitation Psychology Dana S. Dunn,2025-12-15 Disability is often erroneously understood exclusively as a quality of disabled people a fact that ignores the role of the environment both real and perceived and importantly the attitudes and actions of nondisabled individuals The seven Foundational Principles of Rehabilitation Psychology represent a distillation of key ideas and concepts that aid disabled individuals while also educating their nondisabled allies

The Wounded Researcher Robert D. Romanyshyn,2020-08-14 The Wounded Researcher addresses the crises of epistemological violence when we fail to consider that a researcher is addressed by and drawn into a work through his or her complexes

Using a Jungian Archetypal perspective this book argues that the bodies of knowledge we create degenerate into ideologies which are the death of critical thinking if the complexity of the research process is ignored Writing with soul in mind invites us to consider how we might write down the soul in writing up our research
