information is the Achilles heel of terrorist organizations. It offers a critical examination of the fears of terrorists themselves as opposed to the traditional focus on the fear instilled by terrorist organizations in governments and citizens. Taking a multidisciplinary approach and long term history perspective the book provides a method for exploring the minds of terrorists and the inner workings of their organizations and traces the evolution of terrorist thought and methodology across time and place. Each entry provides bibliographic information a summary of the story and a list of primary and secondary sources. Each volume contains a few spotlight essays. Partial contents. The Nazi Era, 1919-1945 Helen Kehr, 1982. The "Hitler Myth" Ian Kershaw, 1989 Few if any twentieth century political leaders have enjoyed greater popularity among their own people than Hitler did in the decade or so following his rise to power in 1933. The personality of Hitler himself however can scarcely explain this immense popularity or his political effectiveness in the 1930s and 40s. His hold over the German people lay rather in the hopes and perceptions of the millions who adored him. Based largely on the reports of government officials party agencies and political opponents Ian Kershaw's groundbreaking study charts the creation growth and decline of the Hitler myth. He demonstrates how the manufactured Führer cult served as a crucial integrating force within the Third Reich and a vital element in the attainment of Nazi political aims. Masters of the new techniques of propaganda the Nazis used image building to exploit the beliefs phobias and prejudices of the day. Kershaw greatly enhances our understanding of the German people's attitudes and behavior under Nazi rule and the psychology behind their adulation of Hitler. The War that Hitler Won Robert Edwin Herzstein, 1987 The Reich lost the war but it conquered the minds and souls of the German people. This feat was accomplished by one primary method manipulation of the mass media. And the man responsible for engineering the propaganda Goliath was Paul Joseph Goebbels. Idealist cynic genius his satanic exploitation of every facet of communication radio posters magazines placards and documentary films gained him utter totalitarian control over the German people. In this meticulously researched study Robert Edwin Herzstein
