The Nabataeans In Historical Perspective:

The Nabataeans in Historical Perspective John Irving Lawlor,1974    The Qur'an in Its Historical Context Gabriel Reynolds,2007-09-28 Providing commentary on the controversial revisionist school of Qur'anic studies this book explores the origins scholarship and development of the Qur'an. The collection of articles each written by a distinguished author treat very familiar passages of the Qur'an in an original manner combining thorough philology historical anthropology and cultural history. This book addresses in a critical fashion the hottest issues in recent works on the Quran. Among other things the contributors analyze the controversial theories of Luxenberg regarding Syriac and the Quran and in particular his argument that the term Hur refers not to virgins but to grapes

Consuming Habits: Global and Historical Perspectives on How Cultures Define Drugs Jordan Goodman,Andrew Sherratt,Paul E. Lovejoy,2014-04-08 Covering a wide range of substances including opium cocaine coffee tobacco kola and betelnut from prehistory to the present day this new edition has been extensively updated with an updated bibliography and two new chapters on cannabis and khat. Consuming Habits is the perfect companion for all those interested in how different cultures have defined drugs across the ages. Psychoactive substances have been central to the formation of civilizations the definition of cultural identities and the growth of the world economy. The labelling of these substances as legal or illegal has diverted attention away from understanding their important cultural and historical role. This collection explores the rich analytical category of psychoactive substances from challenging historical and anthropological perspectives    Mercer Dictionary of the Bible Watson E. Mills,Roger Aubrey Bullard,1990 Jesus Christ in History and Scripture highlights two related bases for the current revolution in Jesus studies 1 a critically chastened world view that is satisfied with provisional results and 2 a creative or poetic use of the sources of study of Jesus

The Religious Life of Nabataea Peter Alpass,2013-06-13 Flourishing in the centuries around the birth of Christ the Nabataean kingdom covered a large swathe of the north western Arabian Peninsula and was shaped by cultural influences from the Mediterranean Arabian and wider Semitic worlds. The Religious Life of Nabataea examines the inscriptions sculptures and architectural remains left by worshippers in every corner of the kingdom from the spectacular remains of the desert city of Petra to the fertile plains of southern Syria. While previous scholarly approaches have minimised the diversity of cultic practices and traditions found in Nabataea this study reveals a vibrant religious landscape dominated by a variety of local traditions    The Nabataeans in Historical Perspective John I. Lawlor,1969    NIVAC Bundle 5: Minor Prophets Gary V. Smith,James Bruckner,Mark J. Boda,2015-11-03 The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context. To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today's world each passage is treated in three sections Original Meaning Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical literary and cultural context Bridging Contexts A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible Contemporary Significance This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages. The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved. This unique award winning commentary is the ideal resource for today's preachers, teachers and serious students of the Bible giving them the tools, ideas and insights they need to communicate God's Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written. Cura Aquarum in Jordanien Christoph P. J. Ohlig, Christoph Ohlig, 2008

Nabataean Aila (Aqaba, Jordan) from a Ceramic Perspective Benjamin J. Dolinka, 2003 The port of Aila at the northern end of the Aila Gulf in Jordan was an important shipping port serving the capital at Petra as well as a stopping off point on the caravan routes from the east.

Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies Sitta von Reden, 2023-10-24 The Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies offers in three volumes the first comprehensive discussion of economic development in the empires of the Afro-Eurasian world region to elucidate the conditions under which large quantities of goods and people moved across continents and between empires. Volume 3 Frontier Zone Processes and Transimperial Exchange analyzes frontier zones as particular landscapes of encounter economic development and transimperial network formation. The chapters offer problematizing approaches to frontier zone processes as part of and in between empires with the goal of better understanding how and why goods and resources moved across the Afro-Eurasian region. Key frontiers in mountains and steppes along coasts, rivers and deserts are investigated in depth demonstrating how local landscapes, politics and pathways explain network practices and participation in long distance trade. The chapters seek to retrieve local knowledge ignored in popular Silk Road models and to show the potential of frontier zone research for understanding the Afro-Eurasian region as a connected space.

Garden History John Dixon Hunt, 1992 This collection of essays explores the issues, methods and approaches that students in landscape architecture have developed during that period to cope with the expanding subject of gardens and their history. The volume will serve as a benchmark in the field with its range of approaches and wealth of illustrative material. Each contributor focuses upon a specific piece of his or her research and uses this as a basis to discuss the wider implications of the study of gardens within such contexts as botanical, horticultural, agrarian, literary, technological, social, culture, political and art history. Men on the Rocks Michel Mouton, Stephan Gerhard Schmid, Stephan G. Schmid, 2013 Petra in modern southern Jordan is universally known as one of the most frequented tourist sites in the Near East inscribed on the UNESCO world heritage list. Modern visitors are attracted by the romantic aspect of the rock cut tomb facades heavily contrasting in their baroque style with the rocky desert surrounding it. These monuments were the result of the long time presence of the Arab tribe of the Nabataeans who made Petra their capital when they became at least partially sedentarised during the Hellenistic period. How exactly this process of sedentarisation happened how the site of Petra changed from a temporary dwelling place of a small Bedouin tribe to one of the blinding capitals of the ancient Near East that attracted as it is the case today visitors from all over the world was the subject of a three years research program. At the end of that program an international conference held in Berlin in December 2011 brought together several dozens of scholars from all over the world in order to pinpoint the state of research on the Formation of the Nabataean capital. The contributions of the present volume focus on questions related to the natural environment of the site on the geology and geography as well as on architecture small finds and social dynamics probably the clue for a better understanding of the functioning of the Nabataean kingdom and its capital Petra.
