The National Question In South Africa:

The National Question Berch Berberoglu,1995-08-29 This volume examines the volatile nature and complex dynamics of national movements and ethnic conflict around the world    The National Question in South Africa Maria van Diepen,1988    The National Question in Nigeria Abubakar Momoh,Said Adejumobi,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 Addressing the burning questions confronting the Nigerian nation state today this book explores the diverse dimensions and voices apparent in the challenges surrounding the national question Highlighting a range of under researched and unexplored issues it theoretically and empirically examines key aspects of the national question discourse and debate in Nigeria The contributors bring wide and varied experiences to bear on the volume and employ both these experiences and the multidisciplinary approach to illuminate and enrich the issues under study The National Question in Nigeria identifies challenges that must be addressed if the nation is to survive and critical issues that have been left unresolved and now threaten the nation state It is essential reading for social scientists policy makers politicians NGO activists and all observers and students of Nigerian history and politics    One Azania, One Nation No Sizwe,1979

Mzala Nxumalo, Leftist Thought and Contemporary South Africa Robert J. Balfour,2024-10-04 Written as a tribute to the revolutionary intellectual and leader Mzala Nxumalo this book discusses the significance of his work in the context of contemporary South African left politics It explores the history and struggle of the apartheid era that preceded the advent of democracy to analyze a crucial aspect of the national question that is the quest for the establishment of a united South Africa to overcome racist and sexist policies that create and nurture divisions among black people The subjects in this book deal with a wide range of topics including the new social economic and political challenges facing democratic South Africa the need to reexamine the critique of capitalism in the 21st century the relationship between race class and community struggles and the ecological challenges under capitalism Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa    Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license The National Review, 1885 Delivering an Elusive Dream of Democracy

Joleen Steyn Kotze, 2018-09-07 This book analyses the decline of the ANC in Nelson Mandela Bay the economic hub of the Eastern Cape also known as the party's heartland Over the course of last twenty four years party dominant dilemmas have plagued the ANC in the Nelson Mandela Bay This includes corruption political factionalism blurring the line between party and state as well as engaging in spoils politics While this metro had encapsulated the Dream of 94 since the inception of democracy in South Africa weak quality of governance lack of political efficacy and mediocre if not anorexic service delivery effectively led to the ANC losing this symbolically important metropolitan municipality With the loss of Nelson Mandela Bay voters effectively demonstrated that they are no longer willing to accept the liberation narrative and elusive promise of a better tomorrow The ANC can no longer rely on the political capital of the liberation struggle in securing and maintaining its electorally dominant position The loss of Nelson Mandela Bay coupled with Johannesburg and Tshwane could potentially signal the end of ANC electoral dominance The author tracks the electoral decline of the ANC and analyses the dynamics that impact on its ability to potentially sustain its political and electoral dominant position in future elections The Unresolved National Question in South Africa

Edward Webster, Karin Pampallis, John Mawbey, Jeremy Cronin, 2017-03-01 This volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question The re emergence of debates on the decolonisation of knowledge has revived interest in the National Question which began over a century ago and remains unresolved Tensions that were suppressed and hidden in the past are now being openly debated Despite this the goal of one united nation living prosperously under a constitutional democracy remains elusive This edited volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question especially during the apartheid years and goes on to discuss its relevance for South Africa today and in the future Instead of imposing a particular understanding of the National Question the editors identified a number of political traditions and allowed contributors the freedom to define the question as they believed appropriate in other words to explain what they thought was the Unresolved National Question This has resulted in a rich tapestry of interweaving perceptions The volume is structured in two parts The first examines four foundational traditions Marxism Leninism the Colonialism of a Special Type thesis the Congress tradition the Trotskyist tradition and Africanism The second part explores the various shifts in the debate from the 1960s onwards and includes chapters on Afrikaner nationalism ethnic issues black consciousness feminism workerism and constitutionalism The editors hope that by revisiting the debates not popularly known among the scholarly mainstream this volume will become a catalyst for an enriched debate on our identity and our future Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994- ). National Assembly,1998 U.S. Imprints on Sub-Saharan Africa ,1988

Umrabulo ,1996 Essays on the Theory and Practice of Imperialism D. Wadada Nabudere,1979 The Indian Journal of International Law ,1981 Issues for 1960 include a section of official documents The African Communist ,1976

An Analysis of South Africa's Education Policy Documents Karin Ilona Mary Paasche,2006 The language of education policy documents indicates the nature of the society South African policymakers envisioned in a country where people from diverse background share the same geographical space The language indicates how they perceived both themselves and the various groups This study shows that despite political change the style and register of the language used and the concerns underlying educational policies in South Africa are continuous and congruous The Times Parliamentary Debates ,1889

The Pioneer Mail and Indian Weekly News ,1926 Historical Abstracts ,1992 Demilitarisation and Peace-building in Southern Africa: Concepts and processes Peter Batchelor,Kees Kingma,Guy Lamb,2004 Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarization and peace building processes applicable particularly in the Southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level
