The Nativity:

New Perspectives on the Nativity Jeremy Corley, 2009-09-17 The infancy narratives represent some of the most beautiful and intriguing passages in the Gospels. The stories they relate are also arguably the most well known in the Christian tradition from the child in the manger to the Magi paying homage to the infant Jesus. However, there have been relatively few attempts to consider the stories of the Nativity from modern academic perspectives, examining them from feminist perspectives, political standpoints, in cinematic representations as well as more standard but up to date academic approaches. New Perspectives on the Nativity attempts to redress this, providing a fresh insight on these crucial Christian texts from a cast of distinguished contributors. At the outset, Henry Wansbrough surveys scholarship on the infancy narratives since Raymond Brown's landmark study The Birth of the Messiah 2nd edition 1993. Thereafter, four chapters deal with Luke's infancy story. Ian Boxall demonstrates how the narrative offers subtle foreshadowings of the passion and resurrection. Barbara Reid surveys Luke's portrayal of three female prophets: Elizabeth, Mary, and Anna, who prepare for the later presentation of Jesus as a prophet. Leonard Maluf suggests a new understanding of Zechariah's canticle, the Benedictus, by situating it firmly in its Jewish background. Finally, Nicholas King indicates how the inn of the nativity prefigures the later journey of the gospel message. The next four contributions are concerned with Matthew's narrative. Warren Carter shows how the conflict between the infant Jesus and the ruling powers is repeated more dramatically in the life and death of the adult Christ. Benedict Viviano proposes that the three stages in Matthew's genealogy of Jesus belong within a grand scheme of seven ages of salvation history. Bernard Robinson investigates Matthew's nativity story within the context of biblical and Greco-Roman history. Writing Christopher Fuller highlights the carnivalesque approach to the Magi story in Pasolini's classic film The Gospel According to St Matthew. Three final essays focus on the religious value of the infancy stories. Ann Loades reflects on late 20th century poems dealing with the nativity. John Kaltner explores the references to Jesus' birth found in Islamic tradition. Finally, Thomas O'Loughlin argues that contemporary preoccupations with historical investigation can blind us to the mystery presented in the nativity stories. The Restoration of the Nativity Church in Bethlehem Claudio Alessandri, 2020-01-17 This book is a summary of the main restoration works carried out at the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem that commenced in September 2013. Work on roof, wooden structures, wall and floor mosaics, internal plasters, wooden architraves, and painted columns of the nave's external wall surfaces and Narthex is all presented in a sequence of reports that accompany the reader up to the final interventions. Through accurate descriptions of historical and archaeological features, initial state of conservation, and appropriate techniques of conservation and restoration, topics are treated with the methodological and linguistic rigor specific to each disciplinary sector involved. Even if, in the interest of making reading and comprehension easier, it was sometimes preferred to present only significant case studies which are nevertheless representative of groups of wider and more complex problems Through the reading of this work the reader can simply fulfil his desire for knowledge and obtain answers to certain curiosities about the past history of the Church At the same time useful guidelines in dealing with conservation and restoration interventions at historic architectural sites of similar complexity can be found The book is therefore addressed to a generic reader interested in the history and conservation of one of the most representative examples of our heritage but also in light of its technical and scientific value to university students technicians restorers architects structural engineers archaeologists and historians
