The Narrative Sensibility An Introduction To Fiction:

The Narrative Sensibility Reloy Garcia, Lloyd J. Hubenka, 1976-01-01 A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-01-01 Why are so many people attracted to narrative fiction How do authors in this genre reframe experiences people and environments anchored to the real world without duplicating real life In which ways does fiction differ from reality What might fictional narrative and reality have in common if anything By analyzing novels such as Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Amitav Ghosh's The Glass Palace Zadie Smith's White Teeth and Hari Kunzru's The Impressionist along with selected Latino comic books and short fiction this book explores the peculiarities of the production and reception of postcolonial and Latino borderland fiction Frederick Luis Aldama uses tools from disciplines such as film studies and cognitive science that allow the reader to establish how a fictional narrative is built how it functions and how it defines the boundaries of concepts that appear susceptible to limitless interpretations Aldama emphasizes how postcolonial and Latino borderland narrative fiction authors and artists use narrative devices to create their aesthetic blueprints in ways that loosely guide their readers imagination and emotion In A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction he argues that the study of ethnic identified narrative fiction must acknowledge its active engagement with world narrative fictional genres storytelling modes and techniques as well as the way such fictions work to move their audiences Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.

Bloomsbury Guide to English Literature Marion Wynne-Davies, 1990 The new authority on English literature

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender, and Nationalism Jean Pickering, Suzanne Kehde, 1996 Most Americans think of Betsy Ross as she was depicted in Charles Weisberger's popular painting The Birth of Our Nation's Flag a motherly figure sewing at the hearth In fact as Jo Ann Menezes's analysis in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism points out Ross was a widowed businesswoman who ran an upholstery shop out of her house In Weisberger's painting all signs of economic industry are erased and Ross's house is transformed into a home rather than the site of cottage industry Ross is constructed as the perfect heroic mother worthy of sacred creation thus our flag was born Ross's transformation into an icon neatly illustrates the conjunction of soaring nationalism and the establishment of woman as a fixed domestic presence and serves as an excellent example of the master narratives revealed in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism The essays in this provocative anthology explore the connections between nation and gender and the ways in which nostalgia functions to bind these two presumably unrelated constructions together Collectively they suggest that women pay a special fee on behalf of the nation even though it is traditionally represented as an honorarium given to them and that in fact the nation state takes as a foundational principle the subordination of women

Literature and Medicine

Clark Lawlor, Andrew Mangham, 2021 Offering an authoritative account of the relationship between literature and medicine between approximately 1800 and 1900 this volume brings together leading scholars in the field to provide a valuable overview of how two dynamic fields influenced and shaped each during a period of revolutionary change During the nineteenth century medicine was being redefined as a subject in which experimental methodologies could transform the healing art and was simultaneously branching off into new specialisms and subdivisions Questions addressed in this volume include the influence of physics on poetry the role of medical professionalism in fiction the cultural and literary representation of sanitation and the interdisciplinary nature of controversy and negligence Along with its sister publication Literature and Medicine in the Eighteenth Century this volume offers a major critical overview of the study of literature and medicine Back cover volume 2

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender and Nationalism

Suzanne Kehde, Jean Pickering, 1996-12-20 Using texts ranging from the writings of Schlegel to the speeches of the fiftieth anniversary commemoration of D Day these essays explore the ways in which nostalgia brokers the relations between the master narratives of gender and the master narratives of nationalism Although such narratives seem to present nation as an unchanging essence these essays all deal with texts that on analysis show nationalism in an evolving response to developments both political and cultural that destabilize the idea of nation
