The National Artists Of The Philippines:

The National Artists of the Philippines, 1998 The National Artists of the Philippines Cultural Center of the Philippines, 1998 Naming the Artist, Composing the Philippines Neal D. Matherne, 2014 This work is a critical analysis of art memory and prestige in the early twentieth and late twenty first century Philippines I am concerned with the creation of the Philippine nation by various acts of commemoration and recognition awards exhibits and concerts through which artists are valorized immortalized and celebrated I answer three broad questions 1 how do patron client and kinship systems determine the national recognition of artists in the post colonial world 2 how is music used in the nation building project and 3 how is national mythology created and contested through the commemoration of individual artists in the Philippines I approach Philippine area studies through discussions of the past in ethnomusicology borrowing theory from memory studies and methodology from historical anthropology while expanding both fields with a consideration of expressive culture To describe this interaction between state and artist I focus on the National Artist Award NAA the highest honor bestowed upon an artist by the Philippine government I begin by recounting an aberration of the nominating process the 2009 National Artist Award controversy Then President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo deleted a name from the prestigious NAA nominee list and added artists with suspiciously close ties to her administration Then I analyze the 2010 re performance of National Artist for Music Jose Maceda s Ugnayan a multi spatial composition for 20 radio stations This work was originally performed in 1974 with the explicit support of then First Lady Imelda Marcos Finally I describe a 2012 exhibit featuring the materials of National Artist for Music Felipe De Leon Padilla Sr I sort through clashing characterizations of De Leon of as a crisis composer who served the Philippines at times of foreign and domestic peril Reading against the grain of these public acts of commemoration and recognition I provide an account from the ground up and consider how the public construction of national artists renders the Philippines into a unified conceptual whole The National Artists of the Philippines Cultural Center of the Philippines, 1998 Urban and Transit Planning Paola Gallo, Simon Elias Bibri, Francesco Alberti, Abraham R. Matamanda, Cristina Piselli, Hamid Rabiei, Rosa Romano, Ayse Ozcan- Buckley, 2025-05-01 This book covers a critical topic including green building design sustainable urban mobility renewable energy integration and the use of advanced technologies to minimize environmental impact Through comprehensive analysis and practical case studies it highlights how thoughtful design and planning can transform urban areas into resilient eco friendly spaces Also it explores the challenges and opportunities associated with implementing sustainable practices in urban planning and architectural design It highlights successful projects from around the world demonstrating innovative solutions that address issues Aimed at professionals researchers and students this book provides valuable insights and actionable strategies for fostering sustainable growth It serves as an essential guide for anyone committed to creating cities and buildings that not only meet the needs of the present but also safeguard the well being of future generations Through its comprehensive coverage and
