The New China A Catholic Response An Exploration:

Contemporary Religious Studies in China Xinping Zhuo, 2020-04-30 It is a spectacular history since the founding of the PRC When looking back to the history we realize the huge accomplishment of the contemporary China and the remarkable spirit of Chinese people Just as that in other branches the achievements of contemporary Chinese academic development are fully manifested in the research and results of contemporary Chinese religious studies Therefore there is special academic value and practical significance for the development and the future of our religious studies to reexamine this period of history and explore how contemporary Chinese scholars think about it During the academic development of contemporary China religious studies become one of the most developed and popular as well as controversial subjects This is because religious studies have been situated in a complex background and it is difficult to have a well situated position with broad spectrums and sensitive questions Hence religious studies belong to the subjects that are growing The understanding of its connotation and extension is still on the way The full development of religious studies as a discipline will represent the real leap of Chinese religious studies The New China Michael Chu, 1977 The London and China Telegraph , 1876

Marxism and Religion , 2014-02-27 In Marxism and Religion leading Chinese scholars unfold before our eyes theoretical explorations of religion in present day China In addition they along with senior cadres superintending religious affairs strenuously explain why the Marxist view of religion still has relevance to living religions in a country undergoing deep changes unleashed by the late paramount leader Deng Xiaoping's reform and opening up policies Mistakenly perceived by so many westerners as outdated and dogmatic quasi scholarly work in the service of communist regime's propaganda studies selected here are brainchildren of a group of creative and reform minded scholars and cadres who endeavor to uphold Marxist traditions while innovatively sinicizing them hoping that their efforts will contribute to the ruling party's ideological reconstruction Contributors include Fang Litian Gao Shining Gong Xuezheng He Qimin Jin Ze Li Xiangping L Daji Wang Xiaochao Wang Zuo an Ye Xiaowen Zhu Xiaoming and Zhuo Xinping , Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis R. Hoover, 2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across East Southeast Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world's most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Whether or not religious worldview difference is part of a positive pluralism depends on a complex array of legal and cultural conditions This book explores these dynamics and contingencies in Asia structuring the inquiry according to the theory of covenantal pluralism Covenantal pluralist theory calls for a constitutional order characterized by freedom of religion conscience and equality of rights and responsibilities combined with a culture of practical religious literacy and virtues of mutual respect and protection Volume I offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in East Southeast Asia Volume II examines South Central Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1978
