Non-Western Social Movements and Participatory Democracy Ekim Arbatli, Dina Rosenberg, 2017-03-02 This book analyzes social movements across a range of countries in the non Western world Bosnia Brazil Egypt India Iran Palestine Russia Syria Turkey and Ukraine in the period 2008 to 2016 The individual case studies investigate how political and social goals are framed nationally and globally and the types of mobilization strategies used to pursue them The studies also assess how in the age of transnationalism the idea of participatory democracy produces new collective action frames and mass mobilization strategies The book challenges the view that most social movements unequivocally seek to achieve higher levels of democratization Instead the authors argue that protesters across different movements advocate more involved forms of citizen participation since passive representation through liberal democratic institutions fails to address mass grievances and demands for accountability in many countries

Globalizing the Peasant Virginia L. Lewis, 2007-02-09 Globalizing the Peasant examines literary narratives from across the globe as an affective archive of crucial information regarding the human experience of globalization over the last 150 years Her revealing lens is focused on agrarian populations whose deep emotional and spiritual attachment to the land has been irrevocably disrupted by the globalization processes of enclosure commodification and industrialization In a wide ranging corpus of texts from what Lewis terms Global Land Literature she uncovers a well spring of evidence concerning the harmful impact of globalization on human efforts to secure a happy existence and derive meaning and value from life At the same time she reveals that these very narratives are a crucial resource for ways to counteract the often destructive tendencies of global commercialization Globalizing the Peasant thus underscores the abiding relevance of literature as an indispensable guide for ethical conduct in the new millennium
