Herman Bavinck,2022-03-08 In this book Dutch theologian Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 provides a historical sketch on the nature of Christianity and the unifying power of Christ He proceeds from unity to diversity on where the Christian church agrees to the areas where it differs It is apologetic and evangelistic ecumenical and Reformed and historical and theological in scope In this succinct book Bavinck traces the history of Christian doctrine and life distinguishing the East from the West and then focusing on the West through the Reformation to the twentieth century Both at the beginning and the end of the book he places before the reader what he deemed the most important religious and theological question of the day Who is Jesus It is no small task which Dr Bavinck has undertaken to tell in sixty two small pages all that Christianity is and that in a series in which it is brought into comparison with other great religions He has fulfilled this task however in a most admirable manner His method is first to point out what all Christians are agreed upon and then to give an historical account of Christianity in its origins and it its progressive manifestations in the great forms of the Orthodox Eastern the Romish the Lutheran Reformed Churches with further descriptions of the forms it has taken since in Anabaptism and Socinianism and the New Protestantism rooted in the Enlightenment His plan thus resolves itself into an informal sketch of the historical development of Christianity This sketch is written with remarkable grasp of details and an equally remarkable power of synthesis We cannot imagine how the work could be done better B B Warfield
