Specters Of Liberation:

Specters of Liberation Martin Beck Matušík, Martin Joseph Matustik, Martin Joseph Matušík, 1998-01-01 Advocates a new existential and political coalition among critical and postmodern social theorists and among critical gender race and class theorists in dissent from the New World Order to raise specters of liberation and empower radical democratic change

Specters of Liberation, Children of Violence Natasha Marie Llorens, 2021 I read extensively with Karima Lazali on the clinical situation of Algerians post war I draw on archival materials from Algeria and France including production notes and documentation of contemporary reception especially by Algerians On contextual questions I read Algerian sociologists politicians filmmakers and film critics as much as possible My commitment to de centering especially a French perspective on Algeria allows the rich semiotic exchange between filmmakers artists architects and political activists to emerge and to challenge the hegemonic perspective that Algerian culture post war was entirely dominated by its authoritarian government

Architecture or Revolution Nadir Lahiji, 2020-09-22 By linking building theory to the emancipatory project of critique advanced by radical thinkers in our time this work investigates the key conceptual and historical elements that culminate in an emancipatory theory of building entitled Toward a philosophy of shelter Taking Marx as its only resource this work proceeds with the conviction that our era is contemporaneous to Marx's historical era This means not judging the validity of Marx from the perspective of the historical situation but rather demonstrating the validity of a Marxian perspective for a singular historical situation as ours This work will therefore translate this perspective into seeing the situation of architecture through the eyes of Marx All those concerned with the predicament in our current condition in which architecture must play a major social role in upholding the universal value of what Alain Badiou calls generic humanity will take an interest in this work In particular architects critics scholars and students inside the field of architecture who would be seeking the application of this universal value to a new theory of building will be a welcoming audience for this work

Group Rights David Ingram, 2000 Ingram philosophy Loyola University brings a variety of current social dilemmas together in a mutually illuminating way He examines the concept of legal equality in a multiracial society by considering issues such as self governance for Native Americans the rights of immigrants affirmative action and racial redistricting He also tackles the problem of social injustice in a global setting by assessing the negative impact of free trade policies on the rights of groups to self determination and cultural integrity

Jürgen Habermas Martin Beck Matušík, Martin Joseph Matušík, 2001 This philosophical political profile offers the first of its kind intellectual reconstruction of Habermas's defining existential and historical situations his generational profile and interventions his impact on as well as the discontents that his life work generates in others Written as a lively dramatic engagement with major themes of Habermas's adult life in postwar Germany the entire study occupies a unique place between the standard genres of a biography and a theoretical commentary on the oeuvre In this work the reader is taken on a journey with Habermas through the 20th century intellectual and political history from the defeat of Nazism to the Cold War restoration of the 50s the student movement of the 60s the historical revisions of the 70s and 80s the hope of the post Wall era after 1989 all the way to the controversies surrounding the allied wars of intervention against Iraq and Serbia in the 1990s Both beginning and advanced readers of 20th century socio political thought gain greater insight into the existential political and philosophical influences that proved to be formative of Habermas s writing and activism in the public sphere The first part of the study emphasizes the unfolding linear view of Habermas s postwar history punctuated by the major existential and political situations of his young adult life from 1945 to 2000 The second part returns to the same time span in order to reconstruct Habermas s mature post Wall intellectual profile in contrast to the profiles of the preceding generation of 1945 and the later protesting generation of 1968 The third part examines the tremendous Habermas effect exercised on 20th century thought and public policy The concluding chapters discuss critically the lasting place as well as the limits of Habermas s achievement in contribution to a development of new critical theory The book is enhanced by an introduction that provides a historical and conceptual background to the major themes discussed twelve helpful thematic table

Ghosts of the Revolution in Mexican Literature and Visual Culture Erica Segre, 2013 The official centenary commemorating the Mexican Revolution of 1910 provided scholars with an opportunity to consider memorialization and its legacies and afterimages in the twentieth century through to the present time This collection of new essays commissioned from experts based in Mexico Europe and the United States plays on the interrelated notions of revisitation haunting residual traces and valediction to interrogate the Revolution s multiple appearances reckonings and reconfigurations in art photography film narrative fiction periodicals travel testimonies and poetry examining key constituencies of creative media in Mexico that have been involved in historicizing contesting or evading the mixed legacies of the Revolution The interplay of themes practices and contexts across the chapters ranging from the 1920s through to the present day draws on interdisciplinary thinking as well as new findings framing the volume s discourse with a deliberately multi dimensional approach to an often homogenized topic The contributors scholarly referencing of artists novelists poets photographers foreign correspondents critics filmmakers and curators is detailed and wide ranging creating new juxtapositions that include some rarely studied material
