Spectre Of Comparisons:

The Spectre of Comparisons Benedict Anderson,1998-09-17 The Spectre of Comparisons contains important theoretical and historical considerations about the nature of nationalism the prospects for the Left in the so called New World Disorder    The Spectre of Comparisons ,2000    The Spectre of Comparisons Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson,1998 A controversial collection from the author of the celebrated Imagined Communities While Benedict Anderson is best known for his classic book on nationalism Imagined Communities many of his most telling and incisive interventions have been made in his essays Those collected in this new book span a range of subjects from Aquino's Philippines where the horses on the haciendas ate better than the stable hands to political assassination in contemporary Thailand where government posts have become so lucrative that to gain them candidates will kill their rivals In these writing the subtle imbrication of politics national imaginings bureaucracy modernization and its agents particularly print culture is brought out in all its complexity and richness The spectre of comparisons was a phrase used by the celebrated Filipino nationalist and novelist Jose Rizal 1861-96 whose work and fate in the national imagination are discussed in these pages In his finely wrought observations on Southeast Asian societies Anderson raises deep questions concerning this spectre about how for instance Manila is changed when it can no longer be seen through a comparison with European capitals and how more broadly nationalism is produced by the process of increasing global connection The Spectre of Comparisons is an indispensable resource for those interested in South East Asia But it also contains important theoretical and historical considerations about nationalism national literature and memory modernization and the prospects for the Left in what Anderson dubs The New World Disorder    Grounds of Comparison Pheng Cheah,Jonathan D. Culler,2003 Publisher Description    Key Thinkers on Space and Place Phil Hubbard,Rob Kitchin,Gill Valentine,2004-05-25 A comprehensive guide to the latest work on space Each entry is a short interpretative essay outlining the contributions made by the key theorists

Proceedings of the Fourth Atmospheric Radiation Measurement (ARM) Science Team Meeting ,1994    Grounds of Comparison Pheng Cheah,Jonathan Culler,2013-08-21 Benedict Anderson professor at Cornell and specialist in Southeast Asian studies is best known for his book Imagined Communities Reflections on the Origin and Spread of Nationalism 1991 It is no understatement to say that this is one of the most influential books of the last twenty years Widely read both by social scientists and humanists it has become an unavoidable document For people in the humanities Anderson is particularly interesting because he explores the rise of nationalism in connection with the rise of the novel    New Left Review ,2006

Empire of Analogies Kaori Nagai,2006 Empire of analogies examines Kipling's representation of the Irish in his Indian stories while tracing his changing views of the Empire as the hegemony of British imperialism faltered towards the end of the nineteenth century It raises an important question regarding the place of Ireland in the Empire namely why do his Irish characters especially the eponymous hero of Kim have to be represented in India Empire of analogies seeks to answer this colonial riddle by placing it within the context of the imperial connections between British colonies It argues that Indo Irish analogies and comparisons became especially important in representing imperial integrity in the late nineteenth century and as such became the very site where the image of the British Empire was contested book jacket The Promise and Pathology of Democracy Cleo Calimbahin,2009 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2003 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Far Eastern Economic Review,1999-04 Asia s premier business magazine The magazine reports on politics business economics technology and social and cultural issues throughout Asia with a particular emphasis on both Southeast Asia and China Book Review Index,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2000

Thornton,2002-07-23 Fire on the Rim combines an idealist s call for social justice cultural difference and environmental sustainability with a realist s recognition of the continuing need for balance of power security relations around the Pacific Rim Although this melding of idealist and realist elements is sure to meet opposition on the Right and Left alike the author s call for moral realism is a vital step toward an Asia policy fit for the twenty first century Visit our website for sample chapters Ten Great Religions: A comparison of all religions. 1883 James Freeman Clarke,1883 The Manila Review,2012-12
