Labyrinths Of Democracy Adaptations Linkages Representation And Policies In Urban Politics:

Labyrinths of Democracy Heinz Eulau, Kenneth Prewitt, 1973 Degrees of Democracy Stuart N.

Soroka, Christopher Wlezien, 2010 This book develops and tests a thermostat model of public opinion and policy and examines both responsiveness and representation across a range of policy domains in the United States the United Kingdom and Canada concluding that representative democratic government functions surprisingly well Cities, Politics, and Policy John P. Pelissero, 2002-10-01 Just because Milwaukee isn't Manhattan doesn't mean that those urban centers face completely unique challenges Through effective comparative analysis of key issues in urban studies how city managers share power with mayors how spending policies affect economic development and how school politics impact education policy students can clearly see how scholars discern patterns and formulate conclusions to offer theoretical and practical insights from which all cities can benefit Pelissero brings together an impressive team of contributors to explore variation among cities through case studies and cross sectional analyses Each author synthesizes the field's seminal literature while explaining how urban leaders and their constituents grapple with everything from city council politics to conflict and cooperation among minority groups Authors identify both key trends and gaps in the scholarship and help set the research agenda for the years to come Lively case material will hook your students while the accessible presentation of empirical evidence make this reader the comprehensive and sophisticated text you demand Parliamentary Candidates Between Voters and Parties Lieven De Winter, Rune Karlsen, Hermann Schmitt, 2020-10-27 This book offers the first comprehensive comparative and coherent perspective on parliamentary candidates in contemporary representative democracy Based on the unique database of the Comparative Candidate Survey project which interrogated parliamentary candidates in more than 30 countries it fills a significant lacuna by focusing on the thousands of ordinary candidates that participate in national elections It examines who the candidates are in terms of their socio demographic background and political career patterns how they were selected by their parties what their policy preference are and whether these are congruent to those held by their voters who they seek to represent and how they intend to do so once elected and what their visions are on representative democracy and party government Last but not least it investigates how they go about reaching out to their potential voters during the election campaign This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of political parties and party politics political elites political communication political participation elections theories of democracy and representation legislative studies voting behaviour and more broadly to European politics as well as to political and policy professionals throughout Europe Custodians of Place Paul George Lewis, Max Neiman, 2009 Custodians of Place provides a new theoretical framework that accounts for how different types of cities arrive at decisions about residential growth and economic development Lewis and Neiman surveyed officials in hundreds of California cities of all sizes and socioeconomic characteristics to account for differences in local development policies This book shows city governments at the center of the action in shaping their destinies frequently acting as far sighted trustees of their communities They explain how city governments often can insulate themselves for the better from short term political pressures and craft policy that builds on past growth experiences and future vision Findings also include how conditions on the ground local commute times housing affordability composition of the local labor force play an important role in determining the approach a city takes toward growth and land use What types of cities tend to aggressively pursue industrial or retail firms What types of cities tend to favor housing over business development What motivates cities to try to slow residential growth Custodians of Place answers these and many other questions

Critical Pluralism, Democratic Performance, and Community Power Paul Schumaker,1991 Who governs is a central question in political science Typically political scientists address this question by relying upon either empirical analysis which explains existing political practices or normative analysis which describes ideal political practices
