Struggle For Black Empowerment In New Yo:

The Struggle for Black Empowerment in New York City Charles St. Clair Green, Basil Wilson, 1989      Manufacturing Powerlessness in the Black Diaspora Charles Green, 2001-02-07 Despite the economic utopianism brought on by globalization effective solutions to the persistent plight of urban blacks throughout the African diaspora continue to elude scholars politicians and community leaders Charles Green brings a decade of research and original fieldwork in Africa the Caribbean and the United States to investigate the interface of the historic racism faced by these urban communities and contemporary trends of globalization Green pays particular attention to the condition of the youth whose aspirations vulnerabilities and insights into their own conditions are central to the future prospects for their communities as a whole Considering the impacts of economic restructuring and cultural diffusion alike his analysis asserts the importance of both global ties and local distinctiveness Ultimately Manufacturing Powerlessness aims to encourage the formation of alliances throughout the diaspora so that urban black communities can manufacture a future of empowerment Visit the author's web page

David Dinkins and the Goliaths of New York City Basil Wilson, 1991      African Americans and the American Political System

Lucius Jefferson Barker, Mack H. Jones, Katherine Tate, 1999 Offers a systematic theoretical and structural framework for more accurate appraisal of the relative nature and influence of governing institutions and of past present and recurring developments on African American and American Politics generally It's a dynamic systematic appraisal of how African Americans fare within the prevailing theoretical structural and functioning patterns of the American political and governmental system Offers new materials on Black Political participation and voting behavior e.g. who votes in the Black community the role of race class and gender in Black politics the role of the economy in shaping the Black vote the Black evaluations of their representatives in Congress Comments on the changing nature and structure of African American participation and influence in Congress and the Presidency e.g. the Congressional Black Caucus and the overall relative role and participation of Blacks in congress and in the Clinton Presidency and Administration      Blacks, Latinos, and Asians in Urban America James Jennings, 1994 This volume of essays by scholars and activists focuses on the political and social relations between blacks Latinos and Asians in key urban centers Collectively the essays examine the particular status of relations between these groups the reasons for conflict or consensus and the prospects for future relations While a number of cities are examined the book focuses on Los Angeles Washington D.C. and Miami as particularly instructive case studies Urban eruptions in these cities are examined in terms of the nature of political relations between blacks Latinos and Asians These essays provide analyses within a sociohistorical context and offer the kind of political activism that might ensure consensus rather than conflict between these groups in urban America As Luis Fuentes observes This book should be read by all activists and scholars interested in changing the face of urban and ultimately national America for if communities of color can come together for progressive political action then it will only be a matter of time before America finally begins to look like and act like what it has been preaching for generations collection offers alternative explanations of local actions with a focus on conflict It features examples of experiences selected from various cities It examines how the responses of local governments to specific issues are influenced by such factors as political culture and intitutions

Culture Wars and Local Politics Elaine B. Sharp,1999

This From the tragic workings of the Holocaust and Hiroshima to contemporary examples of genocide in Bosnia and Rwanda this provocative collection of original essays examines the enduring impact of cataclysmic events on the modern human psyche Inspired by the career of Robert Jay Lifton the distinguished contributors use a wide range of disciplinary and methodological approaches to probe society culture and politics in the nuclear age and they explore the therapeutic value of artistic expression to witnesses and survivors of mass violence The essays convey a message of hope by displaying the remarkable diversity of human responses to extreme adversity and by concluding that intellectuals and professionals have an abiding obligation to act responsibly in a world of violence and to provide healing images of transformation Contributors Paul Boyer John M Broughton Harvey Cox Wendy Doniger Bonnie Dugger Kai Erikson Richard Falk Michael Flynn Eva Fogelman John Fousek Elinor Fuchs Lane Gerber Charles Green Hillel Levine John E Mack Karen Malpede Eric Markusen Saul Mendlovitz Greg Mitchell George L Mosse Ashis Nandy Martin J Sherwin Victor W Sidel Bennett Simon Charles B Strozier Steven M Weine Roger Williamson Howard Zinn

Images of West Indian Immigrants in Mass Media Christine M. Du Bois,2004 Du Bois explores mass media s unflattering images of black Caribbean immigrants Drawing on the extended case study in the Chesapeake region she highlights media ethics in relation to minorities Analyses of journalism advertisements TV and film reveal ways these immigrants were unfairly depicted during the 1980s and 1990s and how relationships among law enforcers journalists criminals and Hollywood writers shaped media representations Du Bois also details the West Indians response She places their concerns in the context of an America where dark skinned immigrants can be subjected to racism and xenophobia particularly when members of their community commit crimes Her findings are relevant to the current struggle to balance journalism about terrorists with a desire to treat all Americans fairly

The New York Irish Ronald H. Bayor,Timothy J. Meagher,1996

Providing a vivid example of how newcomers encountered America this is the story of Irish immigrants and their descendants in New York a history almost as old as the city itself The authors examine Irish American life in the city while addressing issues that affected immigrants throughout the U S 32 illustrations

Social Justice Philanthropy John H. Stanfield,1997

This serial publication focuses more on theoretical than practical analyses It encourages historical as well as contemporary cases of social policy development and implementation and also stresses unconventional interpretations of social policies

Political Science Quarterly Columbia University. Faculty of Political Science, 1931 A review devoted to the historical statistical and comparative study of politics economics and public law     American Urban Politics in a Global Age Paul Kantor, Dennis R. Judd, 2008 In this thoroughly revised reader two leading scholars bring together a collection of readings that highlight the most important trends in urban scholarship today The engaging selections incorporated into American Urban Politics in the Global Era are arranged and presented within a clear thematic structure and with commentaries by the editors In addition to the political economy perspective emphasized in previous editions of the reader this new edition highlights the impact of globalization on urban politics and policy today The historical and contemporary readings reveal how the interaction of local national and international forces is reshaping the political landscape of urban America     Social Justice ,2000     Explorations in Sights and Sounds ,1991     Climbing Jacob's Ladder Andrew Billingsley, 1992 Moving beyond the either or argument about whether it is class or race that cripples or enhances the viability of family life this book takes a broader perspective showing that class race gender and age are all critical dimensions of life that may be used to understand families better as well as to discriminate against them     The International Journal of African Studies ,1997     The Best Books for Academic Libraries: History of the Americas ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers
