Hands Down, Speak Out Kassia Omohundro Wedekind,Christy Hermann Thompson,2023-10-10 Math coach Kassia Omohundro Wedekind and literacy coach Christy Hermann Thompson have spent years comparing notes on how to build effective classroom communities across the content areas How they wondered can we lay the groundwork for classroom conversations that are less teacher directed and more conducive to student to student dialogue Their answers start with Hands Down Conversations an innovative discourse structure in which students ideas and voices take the lead while teachers focus on listening and facilitating In addition to classroom stories and examples Christy and Kassia provide 28 micro lessons designed to help K-5 students develop and exercise their speaking and listening muscles Inside Hands Down Speak Out you'll learn how to Build talk communities that are accessible to everyone especially those whose voices are often traditionally left out of classroom discourse Analyze classroom

conversations in order to plan next steps for developing the classroom talk community Plan and facilitate three types of conversations across literacy and math Christy and Kassia believe that the development of dialogue skills is worth the investment of time not only because it has the power to deepen our understanding of literacy and mathematics but also to deepen our understanding of ourselves our communities and the world Contemporary Women Artists Laurie Collier Hillstrom, Kevin Hillstrom, 1999 Provides biographical and career information on more than 350 of the world's most prominent and influential contemporary 20th century women artists Includes visual art in the following media painting, sculpture, drawing, printmaking, collage, photography, ceramics, mixed media, electronic media, performance art, video, design and graphic arts Embracing Uncertainty Margaret Heffernan, 2025-03-25 Most people hate and fear uncertainty. It causes such stress and anxiety that we often choose certain surrender over doubt, becoming passive, dependent, addicted and more anxious than ever. Doubling down on the certainties promised by technology and micro management only makes things worse, leaving no opportunity for innovation, adaptation or invention. Artists live with uncertainty constantly but instead of waiting for the future, they run towards making it with agency and freedom. What can we learn from them about facing into a future that grows more uncertain daily? At a time when organizations of all kinds crave innovation but complain their people lack creativity and initiative, the arts have never been so essential to our future. We may not all be artists but we can learn to think like them. Margaret Heffernan makes a compelling argument for the vital integration of art into all aspects of our lives and for artists to guide us with their stamina, freedom and endurance Turning on Learning Carl A. Grant, Christine E. Sleeter, 2003 This new Fourth Edition contains many lesson plans that cover a variety of subject areas and grade levels 1-12, as well as action research activities that investigate the various dimensions of teaching. Many of the lesson plans are written by actual classroom teachers and all of them have been examined by practicing teachers. More than simply a how-to manual, it is designed to help the teacher or teacher education student teach from a multicultural perspective. Each lesson plan offers a Before version of the lesson as it is usually taught and an After version of how the lesson can be improved to turn on learning. A discussion explaining why the changes were made follows each lesson plan. St. James Guide to Black Artists Thomas Riggs, 1997 St. James's unique biographical dictionary provides information concerning approximately 400 artists, nearly 300 of whom were living at the time of publication. Although the focus is on fine artists, sculptors, painters and printmakers, the index groups artists by medium, listing photographers, illustrators, ceramists, performance artists, filmmakers, quilt makers, wood carvers and fiber artists. An index of nationalities lists 26 groups from Europe, Africa and the Caribbean, but US artists predominate, approximately 300. Nigerians and Jamaicans are the second largest groups, with 16 listings each. The signed entries profile the artist and list the artist's exhibitions, the institutions holding the artist's work and the artist's publications. Many entries provide photographs of the artists or examples of their work. All illustrations are black and white reproductions and are indexed separately. A four part subject bibliography covers general works and works on African, African American and
