

A detailed still life illustration of a study desk. The desk is cluttered with various items: several open and closed books of different sizes, some with worn covers; loose sheets of paper, some crumpled and others neatly folded; a quill pen in a small holder; and a small, dark, bell-shaped object. The background is dark, making the desk and its contents stand out. The overall tone is scholarly and historical.

Tapestry Of Christian Theology:

The Tapestry of Christian Theology Gregory C. Higgins, 2003 This unique and supremely readable textbook recounts the thought of nine influential twentieth century theologians in the light of biblical narrative to better understand the Christian life By drawing upon the achievement of major thinkers Rosemary Ruether Gustavo Gutierrez Reinhold Niebuhr Dietrich Bonhoeffer Karl Rahner Jurgen Moltmann Hans Kung Yves Congar and Wolfhart Pannenberg and rooting it within the rich fabric of its biblical context Creation Exodus Conquest Exile the Incarnation the Crucifixion the Resurrection Pentecost and the End of Time The Tapestry of Christian Theology traverses a landscape both historical and spiritual one that traces and encourages a new understanding of both perspectives and illumines a greater insight into our own lives Here is a rigorous and wide ranging textbook for college theology courses also suitable for the general reader Heavenly Participation Hans Boersma, 2011-02-01 Surveying the barriers that contemporary thinking has erected between the natural and the supernatural between earth and heaven Hans Boersma issues a wake up call for Western Christianity Both Catholics and evangelicals he says have moved too far away from a sacramental mindset focusing more on the here and now than on the then and there Yet as Boersma points out the teaching of Jesus Paul and St Augustine indeed of most of Scripture and the church fathers is profoundly otherworldly much more concerned with heavenly participation than with earthly enjoyment In Heavenly Participation Boersma draws on the wisdom of great Christian minds ancient and modern Irenaeus Gregory of Nyssa C S Lewis Henri de Lubac John Milbank and many others He urges Catholics and evangelicals alike to retrieve a sacramental worldview to cultivate a greater awareness of eternal mysteries to partake eagerly of the divine life that transcends and transforms all earthly realities A Tapestry of Faiths Winfried Corduan, 2009-06-01 Drawing on his wide experience and knowledge of other religions as they are actually lived Winfried Corduan helps you sort through the complex tapestry of faiths around the world A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Y. Atsen, 2022-12-16 Who is Jesus Christ in a context of violence and bloodshed such as that experienced by Christians in Northern Nigeria This is the question at the heart of Dr Isuwa Atsen's study of global Christology His aim however is not to develop a Christology that is unique to Northern Nigeria but a Christology that is contextually and conceptually relevant to the real concerns of Nigerian Christians while maintaining a catholic and scriptural understanding of the person of Jesus Christ In order to do so he weaves together three diverse christological approaches examining the intersection of contextual theology analytic theology and the theological interpretation of Scripture The approach thereby presents some helpful insights for theological methodology in general This is an excellent resource for theologians students and all those involved in the task of global Christology Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth Weaving the American Catholic Tapestry Derek C. Hatch, Timothy R. Gabrielli, 2017-03-28 Concerned that American Catholic theology has struggled to find its own voice for much of its history William Portier has spent virtually his entire scholarly career recovering a usable past for Catholics on the U S landscape This work of ressourcement has stood at the intersection of several disciplines and has unlocked the beauty of American Catholic life and thought These essays which are offered in honor of Portier's life and work emerge from his vision for American Catholicism where Scripture tradition reason and experience are distinct but interwoven and inextricably linked with one another As this volume details such a path is not merely about scholarly endeavors but involves the pursuit of holiness in the real world A Tapestry of Beliefs Norman Richardson, 1998 An accessible survey and comparative study of the Christian traditions active in Northern Ireland

Edinburgh Critical History of Twentieth-Century Christian Theology Philip G. Ziegler, 2022-04-27 This volume re-examines the history of twentieth century Christian theology by tracing key concepts problems and themes as they develop in context with new perspectives opened up by contemporary theology itself The ambition is to illuminate the context dynamism and complexities of its traditions and in doing so to offer a critical and creative ressourcement for contemporary theologians The range of international contributors to this volume inquire afresh into the preoccupations problems provocations and prospects of Christian theology in the century just past to ask anew about just what in this recent history matters and why

Toward the Future of Reformed Theology David Willis-Watkins, Michael Welker, 1999 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Toward the Future of Reformed Theology brings together the voices of leading contemporary Reformed theologians from around the world providing a unique summary of the range and wealth of Reformed theology today and exploring its potential for the future These thirty one essays consider the task of Reformed theology in the modern world give Reformed perspectives on key theological themes and suggest fruitful present day trajectories of Reformed thought from the past Contributors Brian Gerrish M Janos Pasztor Nobuo Watanabe Choan Seng Song Edmund Za Bik Wafiq Wahba John de Gruchy Jürgen Moltmann Michael Welker Beatriz Melano Thomas Torrance David Willis William Placher Alexander McKelway Leanne Van Dyk Christian Link Lukas Vischer Walter Herrenbrück Nancy Duff Hans Joachim Kraus John Leith Willem Balke Hans Helmut Esser Dawn DeVries Jan Milic Lochman John Hesselink Sang Hyun Lee Amy Plantinga Pauw Bruce McCormack Daniel Migliore Eberhard Busch A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Yohanna Atsen, 2019 This dissertation pursues the interaction of the theological interpretation of Scripture analytic theology and contextual theology grounded in the principles of canonicity catholicity contextuality and conceptuality It brings all these approaches to bear on the practice of global Christologizing Using weaving as a metaphor for doing theology the study seeks to orient Christology in a global analytic theological theology key It argues that global theology needs to proceed from the canonical text and the Christian tradition while being attentive to contextual realities and concepts with analytic rigor The study shows that analytic theology holds promise for doing global theology but more so if it interfaces with the theological interpretation of Scripture in a way that all three disciplines or approaches are strengthened A contextual theology that is inclined to both theological interpretation and analytic theology will help these practices avoid mere discussions of scriptural and logical theological ideas that may have no bearing to real issues faced by the local church On the other hand contextual theology would also benefit by being safe guarded from a theology whereby context alone determines truth claims and overrides any other concerns While the focus on using contextual realities and cultural resources is not only desirable but also inevitable many of the Christologies that emerge from this approach often exclude and or limit some of the principles stated above In the absence of these principles Scripture is merely read with cultural lenses and in some instances the local concepts employed in Christologizing fail to sustain the same judgments found in both biblical texts and early ecclesial tradition Finally the study puts to work the judgments that ensued from the interaction described above by reflecting on the person and work of Christ from the experience of Christians and churches in northern Nigeria using Matthew 14 22 33 and Philippians 2 5 11 What is demonstrated at the end is not necessarily a new Christology that is unique to this context but a Christology that seeks above all to be canonical and catholic while being contextually and conceptually relevant to the real problems faced by Christians in the region What emerges then is illustrative of an approach to global Christologizing that seeks to be truly global
