The true teaching of the Word of God is gathered from careful and continuous searching of the Scriptures and there is danger of fatal error when conclusions are drawn from isolated passages interpreted in accordance with preconceived opinions It has been found not only expedient but needful that the Christian Churches should set forth in creeds and confessions the doctrines which they believe the Scriptures affirm They are bound not only to accept Scripture as the rule of faith but to make known the sense in which they understand it As unlearned and unstable men wrest and subvert the Sacred Writings it is fitting that those who are learned and not unstable should publish sound expositions of their contents In the light of creeds converts are enabled to test their own position and to put to proof the claims of    An Exposition of the Apostles' Creed, Or, The Articles of the Faith, in which the Main Points of the Gracious Eternal Covenant Between

God and Believers are Briefly and Clearly Treated Caspar Olevian,2009 Olevianus s Exposition of the Apostles Creed is a collection of sermons he preached on the basic articles of the Christian faith It serves as a reminder that the Reformed tradition did not see itself as separate from the universal church though it was principally opposed to Rome Rather Olevianus and his tradition argue for a Reformed catholicity rooted in the ancient confession of the church This new translation by Lyle D Bierma along with R Scott Clark s historical introduction will benefit both scholarly and general readers Charged with federal language An Exposition explains the Christian faith as the believer s fellowship with God in the covenant of grace Thus it is significant for its contribution to the development of Reformed covenantal theology In addition to exhibiting its historical value within the Reformed tradition readers will be directed as Olevianus had intended toward edification in true and sound piety    An Exposition of the Creed John Pearson,2022-10-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1859
