Identity Construction and Illness Narratives in Persons with Disabilities Charlotte Glinborg, Manuel L. de la Mata, 2020-08-31 This book investigates how being diagnosed with various disabilities impacts on identity Once diagnosed with a disability there is a risk that this label can become the primary status both for the person diagnosed as well as for their family This reification of the diagnosis can be oppressive because it subjugates humanity in such a way that everything a person does can be interpreted as linked to their disability Drawing on narrative approaches to identity in psychology and social sciences the bio psycho social model and a holistic approach to disabilities the chapters in this book understand disability as constructed in discourse as negotiated among speaking subjects in social contexts and as emergent By doing so they amplify voices that may have otherwise remained silent and use storytelling as a way of communicating the participants realities to provide a more in depth understanding of their point of view This book will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies sociology medical humanities disability research methods narrative theory and rehabilitation studies

International Perspectives on Reminiscence, Life Review and Life Story Work Faith Gibson,2018-11-21 This book collates the latest research developments and evidence base for reminiscence life review and life story work in a single volume Charting the wide applications for narrative therapeutic methods the book emphasises the effectiveness of these approaches with varied people from different cultural backgrounds Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W.

Frymire,2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching

This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle s foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching
