Tango Player:

The Tango Player Christoph Hein, 1994 Set in 1968 Leipzig Christoph Hein's novel is the story of Dallow an apolitical academic who has just returned to civilian life after serving twenty one months in prison His crime he was the substitute piano player in a student cabaret in which seditious verses were sung Dallow returns to a life in of loveless sex police harassment and brutality revealing how a corrupt system perverts all human interaction and how lives are ruined by malicious caprice Understanding Christoph Hein Phillip S. McKnight, 1995 That Was the Wild East Leonie Naughton, 2025-12-10 That Was the Wild East presents critical insight into popular film culture and art house cinema in Germany from 1990 1999 It examines box office hits and cult films such as the Trabi comedies and unification farces which delighted local and international audiences but which have been granted scarce critical attention up to this point The first detailed account of the representation of German unification on film to appear either in English or German this work provides valuable and engaging source material otherwise inaccessible to non German readers In her focus on a range of unification films Leonie Naughton analyzes impressions of unification fostered in films from the East and West along with the comic and tragic anxieties these films attribute to life in the new Germany The ways in which German filmmakers represented unification throughout the 1990s are discussed with reference to a broad range of recent German films and Naughton examines both divergent and convergent cinematic impressions of life in a recently unified Germany by 1990s filmmakers Those interested in film studies and film history German history and culture as well as German unification and recent developments in German cinema will find this book especially appealing Tango Sławomir Mrożek, 1968 A tale about the conflict between generations but basically it demonstrates the process in which youthful idealism turns into unscrupulous struggle for power and paves way to despotism Martin Esslin has argued that the original Polish audience in Warsaw would have seen the work as a bitter and sardonic comment on Stalinism I am going to create a system in which rebellion will be combined with order nonbeing with being declares the young idealist Arthur The Tango Player Christoph Hein, 1994 Set in 1968 Leipzig Christoph Hein's novel is the story of Dallow an apolitical academic who has just returned to civilian life after serving twenty one months in prison His crime he was the substitute piano player in a student cabaret in which seditious verses were sung Dallow returns to a life in of loveless sex police harassment and brutality revealing how a corrupt system perverts all human interaction and how lives are ruined by malicious caprice Tango Robert Farris Thompson, 2005 A definitive study of tango in all its manifestations from the author of the classic Flash of the Spirit Beginning with Carlos Gardel the Argentine genius considered to have invented tango in 1917 through to Hollywood's current representations of the dance Thompson approaches his subject from all conceivable angles Passionately argued unequalled in its research synthesis and depth and written with a revelatory clarity Tango is a monumental and hugely fulfilling achievement Tango for a Torturer Daniel Chavarría, 2006 Aldo Bianchi an Argentine former revolutionary living in Italy travels to Havana where he meets the beautiful Bini a young girl working the hotels with great wit and panache Bianchi soon discovers via his liaison with Bini that his nemesis the Uruguayan military torturer Alberto Ros is living under a false identity in Cuba Putting his tropical holiday on hold Bianchi goes on the hunt for his sadistic enemy Daniel Chavarría portrays the sensuousness and skullduggery of contemporary Havana a city that offers erotic thrills to pleasure seeking tourists even as it hides villains in its humid embrace While Ros thrives on bribery and corruption Bianchi is driven by a desire to see justice done Tango for a Torturer is a political thriller in which bawdy humour coexists alarmingly with chilling evocations of the evils wrought by military dictatorships in Buenos Aires and Montevideo

High Plains Tango Robert James Waller,2005 A young drifter with a passion for solitude and carpentry Carlisle McMillan purchases some land near Wolf Butte South Dakota a region considered sacred by the Sioux and sets out to build a life for himself among the locals
