Capitalism and Classical Social Theory, Third Edition John Bratton, David Denham, 2019-05-31 In this third edition of Capitalism and Classical Social Theory John Bratton and David Denham build on the classical triumvirate Karl Marx, Emile Durkheim and Max Weber by extending the conversation to include early female theorists such as Mary Wollstonecraft and Charlotte Perkins Gilman as well as the writings of W. E. B. Du Bois and G. H. Mead. Connecting current headlines in the political mainstream to concepts like alienation, anomie, class, gender, race and the environment, Capitalism and Classical Social Theory sheds light on how classical social theories may be applied and understood within a contemporary context. This revised and expanded third edition features topical discussions of socio-economic shifts in the post-Trump and post-Brexit world and uses original excerpts and additional readings to further contextualize the significance of classical social theory today.

More Will Sing Their Way to Freedom Elaine Coburn, 2015-12-01T00:00:00Z More Will Sing Their Way to Freedom is about Indigenous resistance and resurgence across lands and waters claimed by Canada. Both Indigenous and non-Indigenous contributors describe and analyze struggles against contemporary colonialism by the Canadian state and more broadly against the global colonial capitalist system. Resistance includes Indigenous survival against centuries of genocidal policies and the ongoing dispossession and destruction of Indigenous lands and waters. Resurgence is the re-invention of diverse Indigenous ways of being, knowing and doing in politics, economics, the arts, research and all realms of life. The underlying argument of More Will Sing Their Way to Freedom is that colonial capitalism is a historical fact but not an inevitability. By analyzing and detailing various forms of Indigenous resistance and resurgence, the authors here describe practices and visions that prefigure a possible world where there is justice for Indigenous peoples and renewed healthy relationships with all our relations.
