Sock It To Me:

The Iowa Alumni Review, 1968 Sock it to 'em Baby Garry Cooper, Robert Hillier, 2006-05 Garry Cooper is a natural and brilliant pilot with a determination for perfection. He expects only perfection from himself and others. Conflict arose many times through his career when he did not experience perfection from the bureaucracy to which he was subjected. On posting to the US Army 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam in 1968 he approached his assignments in the same devoted and determined manner and soon became named a legend by his American peers. General Julian J Ewell the Commander of the 9th Infantry Division and himself a legend from the Siege of Bastogne during WWII recommended Cooper for the Medal of Honour and the Distinguished Service Cross. Both these are the US highest awards and as such required Australian concurrence before being awarded. As Australia was not allowing its personnel to receive US Awards during the Vietnam Conflict that concurrence was not forthcoming. Although Australian policy regarding foreign awards has since changed the government is still preventing Cooper from receiving these high profile awards. The US however for other actions and without reference to the Australian Government has awarded Cooper the Silver Star DFC Bronze Star Purple Heart Air Medal and Army Commendation Medal. In contrast our Government awarded Cooper an imperial DFC which Cooper refers to as his I was there award. Today Cooper lives in retirement in Queensland. He has been made an honorary member of the various US Army units by the men whose lives he saved and attends their reunions in the USA. This book is the life story with the emphasis on his experiences in the Vietnam war Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. With Stand Up and Sock It to Them Sister writer, actress and performer Gwenno Dafydd looks at the genesis of female comedy from the time of music hall and supper clubs in Victorian London through to the excitement and challenge of the international world of stand up from Edinburgh to Cape Town to Mumbai to New York and Los Angeles before finally returning to the comedy clubs of London. Stand Up and Sock It to Them Sister tells us in the words of the performers themselves what they had to face and overcome in an often male dominated and aggressively competitive world to make it to the top in comedy. And why and how they do it. Stand Up and Sock It to Them Sister seeks to explain why the women chose comedy and what they have had to sacrifice to make it. It is an inspiring story of empowerment with a resonance for women everywhere trying to create work and achieve in the modern world. With insightful interviews from over seventy performers and a concise and entertaining commentary, this book offers a practical guide and invaluable advice on the practice and challenges of being a stand up comedian through a unique section of Tips for the Top. Stand Up and Sock it To Them Sister is the result of twenty years of extensive research with interviews with over seventy five comics working world wide from the pioneering Joan Rivers Jo Brand Jenny Eclair Helen Lederer to newcomers such as Nina Conti Shazia Mirza and Amy Schumer A Dictionary of Catch Phrases, British and American, from the
