How to Become a Spy British Special Operations Executive, 2015-06-09 During World War II training in the black arts of covert operation was vital preparation for the ungentlemanly warfare waged by the Special Operations

Executive SOE against Hitler's Germany and Tojo's Japan. In the early years of the war the SOE set up top secret training schools to instruct prospective agents in the art of being a spy. Soon there was an international network of schools in operation in secluded locations ranging from the Scottish Highlands to Singapore and Canada. Reproduced here is one of the most comprehensive training syllabi used at SOE's Special Training Schools (STSs) instructing agents on how to wreak maximum havoc in occupied Europe and beyond. A staggering array of unconventional skills are covered from burglary, close combat and silent killing to utilizing propaganda, surveillance and disguise, giving an unprecedented insight into the workings of one of WWII's most intriguing organizations. These files released from the British National Archive put covert history in readers' hands. Uncover an exciting little known part of WWII history and delve into the inner workings of a real spy network. Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II, the Third Reich, Hitler and his henchmen, the JFK assassination conspiracies, the American Civil War, the American Revolution, gladiators, Vikings, ancient Rome, medieval times, the old West and much more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

The EIU Global

Privatisation Manual George F. Palmer, 1994 SOE Manual Great Britain. Special Operations Executive, 2014-11-06. The actual course given to all secret agents in SOE before working behind enemy lines. It includes everything you needed to know to go undercover, from documents, cover stories and how to live off the land to how to get through an interrogation. The Special Operations Executive (SOE) was a secret British World War II organisation formed in 1940 to conduct espionage, sabotage and reconnaissance in occupied Europe against the Axis powers and to aid local resistance movements. In late 1942 SOE was asked to increase the number of agents to aid the invasion of mainland Europe. Part of agent training was tradecraft, the practical details on how to be a clandestine agent behind enemy lines, which every agent had to attend at various bases centred around Beaulieu in Hampshire. The course was a set of lectures and this book contains the actual text of those lectures, which were discovered in the National Archives this year. It is not only a fascinating insight into the workings of one of the Second World War's most famous and secretive organisations, but is also a reminder of the huge danger anyone being dropped behind enemy lines had to face.
