Sohar, Culture and Society in an Omani Town Fredrik Barth, 1983      Sohar Fredrik Barth, 1983      Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp, 2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated      Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987      Oman: Economic, Social and Strategic Developments B.R. Pridham, 2023-09-08 Oman is an important country for the West both as an oil exporter and as a key ally strategically placed at the entrance to the Gulf This book first published in 1987 provides an overview of post war social political and economic developments in the country It outlines the historical and geographical background considers economic developments both in the oil and non oil sectors as well as exploring societal changes in Omani culture and education      Houseways in Southern Oman Marielle Risse, 2022-12-30 This book explores how houses are created maintained and conceptualized in southern Oman Based on long term research in the Dhofar region it draws on anthropology sociology urban studies and architectural history The chapters consider physical and functional aspects including regulations governing land use factors in siting houses architectural styles and norms for interior and exterior decorating The volume also reflects on cultural expectations regarding how and when rooms are used and issues such as safety privacy social connectedness and ease of movement Houses and residential areas are situated within the fabric of towns comparison is made with housing in other countries in the Arabian peninsula and consideration is given to notions of the Islamic city and the Islamic house The book is valuable reading for scholars interested in the Middle East and the built environment      Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles

Sultan Qaboos and Modern Oman, 1970-2020 Abdulrahman al-Salimi, Allen James Fromherz, 2022-04-27 One of the first timely accounts of both the modern Omani rebirth and its legacy over the entire reign of Sultan Qaboos 1970 2020 The book provides unique wide ranging interdisciplinary and international perspectives on modern Oman by specialists in a variety of fields from Oman Europe and North America Utilising a range of perspectives all chapters connect to the theme of rebirth of the connections between the past and the future pursued by Sultan Qaboos and his government in fields as diverse as health religion law economy heritage and diplomacy Not overlooking the many challenges faced during Sultan Qaboos reign and still faced by Oman the book engages various theories and perspectives about Oman s economic religious educational and cultural transformations under Qaboos d 2020 CE

It Happens Among People Keping Wu, Robert P. Weller, 2019-11-04 Written by eleven leading anthropologists from around the world this volume extends the insights of Fredrik Barth one of the most important anthropologists of the twentieth century to push even further at the frontiers of anthropology and honor his memory As a collection the chapters thus expand Barth s pioneering work on values further develop his insights on human agency and its potential creativity as well as continuing to develop the relevance for his work as a way of thinking about and beyond the state The work is grounded on his insistence that theory should grow only from observed life

Traditional Arts in Southern Arabia Dieter Christensen, Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco, 2009 4e de couv The Arabian Peninsula and in particular the coastal areas of the Arab Gulf the Gulf of Oman and the Arab Sea boast since times immemorial a wealth of cultural forms to which the people of the desert and those of the sea and from across the seas have amply contributed The arts music dance poetry in performance not only testify to a deep history and express diverse ethnic identities as an integral part of daily life they are also instrumental in balancing multicultural society and adapting local communities to the effects of national and global modernization The authors have studied during several residences between 1985 and 2006 the state and evolution of performance practices and the social roles of performed arts in Sohar an ancient and still important coastal town of the Sultanate of Oman The book situates and describes the arts al funun and their practitioners in the province and town of Sohar studies the underlying concepts and the social networks through which the arts exist and analyses the forces of change that have affected the arts as part of society in Sohar
