Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen,2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children's literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children's biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape

Slavery on Trial Jeannine Marie DeLombard,2007 Slavery on Trial Law Abolitionism and Print Culture Doers of the Word Carla L. Peterson,1995 In particular the book examines the ways in which this Northern black population despite its heterogeneity came together and established social organizations that would facilitate community empowerment yet Peterson s analysis also acknowledges and seeks to explain the highly complex relationship of black women to these institutions a relationship that rendered their stance as public intellectuals all the more bold and defiant I Will Wear No Chain! Christopher B. Booker,2000-09-30 This volume traces the social history of African American men from the days of slavery to the present focusing on their achievements their changing image and their role in American society The author places the contemporary issue of Black men s disproportionate involvement with criminal justice within its social and historical context while analyzing the most significant movements aiming to improve the status of Blacks in our society The book s main thesis is that an ever changing yet ever present process of criminalization has entrapped Black men throughout history thus creating a major barrier to their collective development The topics discussed include the role of Blacks in the Civil War Booker T Washington the Civil Rights movement and the Million Man March Scarring the Black Body Carol E. Henderson,2002 Scarring and the act of scarring are recurrent images in African American literature In Scarring the Black Body Carol E Henderson analyzes the cultural and historical implications of scarring in a number of African American texts that feature the trope of the scar including works by Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison Ann Petry Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright The first part of Scarring the Black Body The Call traces the process by which African bodies were Americanized through the practice of branding Henderson incorporates various materials from advertisements for the return of runaways to slave narratives to examine the cultural practice of writing the body She also considers ways in which writers and social activists including Frederick Douglass Olaudah Equiano Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth developed a call centered on the body s scars to demand that people of African descent be given equal rights and protection under the law In the second part of the book The Response Henderson goes on to show that more recent representations of the conditions of slavery by authors such as Williams and Morrison extend the efforts of their predecessors by developing creative responses to those calls centered around the African American body and its scars Henderson explores Williams's reinvention of the whip scarred body in her novel Dessa Rose and provides a close analysis of Morrison's use of scar imagery in Beloved She also devotes a chapter to Petry's The Street and concludes with an investigation of the wounded black male psyche in the works of Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright Scarring the Black Body demonstrates that the creative acts of these authors bind together that which has been wounded both literally and figuratively Those who hear the voices of the ancestors are urged to connect to that part of themselves wherein wounds of the past carry a self knowledge that can alter the experiences of the present In this way the disfigured body as a cultural metaphor and social invention can come to terms with its own humanity and embodiment
