Chaucer and his English Contemporaries Tony Davenport,1998-07-31 Modern ways of presenting Chaucer have often made his work seem normal so that The Canterbury Tales and its much studied General Prologue are seen as archetypes of narrative and prologue Tony Davenport argues that study of Chaucer s major work alongside contemporary English poems reveals the odd and extreme aspects of Chaucer s writing as well as the daring and experimental qualities in his work The focus of the book is on strategies of narrative and discourse but also includes discussion of other much studied Middle English poems Books Ireland ,1988 The Cuban Filmography Alfonso J. García Osuna,2006-07-19 On January 24

1897 an event took place that would change Cuban culture forever the first moving pictures were shown in Havana A couple of weeks later on February 7 the first movie was filmed on the island Since then cinematography and Cuba have shared peculiar and innate connections as their beginnings roughly coincide and Cubans are living in both the age of independence and revolution and the age of film This work is a filmography of every Cuban film including documentaries shorts and cartoons released from 1897 the first year films were shown and made in Cuba through 2001 Each entry gives the original title of the film the English translation of it director production company or companies year of release black and white or color total running time writing credits if the film is based on a story or novel animation credits if the film is a cartoon music credits if music has been written specifically for the film cast credits and a synopsis and short critical evaluation The work also provides comments on the relationship between Cuban film and history and the changes that have taken place over the years in themes topics methods and other aspects of filmmaking in Cuba The Review of the News ,1974 Includes a section called Correction please Bibliography of Nautical Books ,1998 Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum British Museum.
