Soldiers Song:

Scarlet and Blue, Or, Songs for Soldiers and Sailors John Farmer, 1896 Songs for soldiers William Cox Bennett, 1879 History of Military System in China Zhi Dao, The book provides highlights on the key concepts and trends of evolution in the History of Military System in China as one of the series of books of China Classified Histories The Show Must Go On! Popular Song in Britain During the First World War John Mullen, 2016-03-03 Using a collection of over one thousand popular songs from the war years as well as around 150 soldiers songs John Mullen provides a fascinating insight into the world of popular entertainment during the First World War Mullen considers the position of songs of this time within the history of popular music and the needs tastes and experiences of working class audiences who loved this music To do this he dispels some of the nostalgic rose tinted myths about music hall At a time when recording companies and record sales were marginal the book shows the centrality of the live show and of the sale of sheet music to the economy of the entertainment industry Mullen assesses the popularity and significance of the different genres of musical entertainment which were common in the war years and the previous decades including music hall revue pantomime musical comedy blackface minstrelsy army entertainment and amateur entertainment in prisoner of war camps He also considers non commercial songs such as hymns folk songs and soldiers songs and weaves them into a subtle and nuanced approach to the nature of popular song the ways in which audiences related to the music and the effects of the competing pressures of commerce propaganda patriotism social attitudes and the progress of the war Ethnic Music on Records Richard K. Spottswood, 1990 This impressive compilation offers a nearly complete listing of sound recordings made by American minority artists prior to mid 1942 Organized by national group or language the seven volume set cites primary and secondary titles composers participating artists instrumentation date and place of recording master and release numbers and reissues in all formats Because of its clear arrangements and indexes it will be a unique and valuable tool for music and ethnic historians folklorists and others Singing, Soldiering, and Sheet Music in America during the First World War Christina Gier, 2016-10-19 An advertisement in the sheet music of the song Goodbye Broadway Hello France 1917 announces Music will help win the war This ad hits upon an American sentiment expressed not just in advertising but heard from other sectors of society during the American engagement in the First World War It was an idea both imagined and practiced from military culture to sheet music writers about the power of music to help create a strong military and national community in the face of the conflict it appears straightforward Nevertheless the published sheet music in addition to discourse about gender soldiering and music evince a more complex picture of society This book presents a study of sheet music and military singing practices in America during the First World War that critically situates them in the social discourses including issues of segregation and suffrage and the historical context of the war The transfer of musical styles between the civilian and military realm was fluid because so many men were enlisted from homes with the sheet music while they were also singing songs in their military training Close musical analysis brings the meaningful musical and lyrical expressions of this time period to the forefront of our understanding of soldier and civilian music making at this time The Song-sheaf Ellsworth C. Phelps, Leroy F. Lewis, 1877 World War I Sheet Music Bernard S. Parker, 2006-10-31 This comprehensive listing catalogs the patriotic sheet music of World War I The introductory text covers the sheet music publishing business of the time and describes how the music messages often paralleled Woodrow Wilson's policies Nearly 10 000 songs are included with complete bibliographical data title authors of the lyrics and music when available value based on auction prices and collector knowledge publisher folio size and cover description Each entry in the catalog is assigned a letter and number for easy identification in the indexes The letter is the first letter of the title of the song and the number is its place in that alphabetical list Titles are arranged alphabetically Included are 613 photos of outstanding sheet music covers The Golden Harpoon, Or Lost Among the Floes Roger Starbuck, 1865 Hero Tales of the American Soldier and Sailor as Told by the Heroes Themselves and Their Comrades , 1899 War and Trade in Maritime East Asia Mihoko Oka, 2022-04-06 This book is divided into two parts One is the state of trade in East Asia before and after the collapse of the tributary system to the Ming Dynasty and the other is the war of aggression in which Toyotomi Hideyoshi of Japan sent a large number of troops to the Korean Peninsula with a view of conquering China at the end of the sixteenth century With regard to East Asia in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the contributors in this book share a problem awareness in terms of using trade and war as subjects to clarify multi ethnic borderless and multilayered situations Although there are many chapters related to Japan this book tries to grasp the interaction between Japan as a region of East Asia and neighboring countries from a global perspective not the one singular national history Soldier and Peasant in French Popular Culture, 1766-1870 David M. Hopkin, 2003 Concentrating on the militarised borderlands of eastern France this book examines the disjuncture between the patriotic expectations of elites and the sentiments expressed in folksongs folktales and popular imagery in which issues of sexuality violence and separation took far greater prominence Hopkin follows the soldier through his life cycle from greenhorn recruit to grizzled veteran to show how the peasant conscript was separated from his previous life and re educated in military mores and the response that this transformation elicited from his family and community BOOK JACKET War Memories Stéphanie A.H. Bélanger, Renée Dickason, 2017-05-31 War Memories explores the patchwork formed by collective memory public remembrance private recollection and the ways in which they form a complex composition of observations initiatives and experiences Offering an international perspective on war commemoration contributors consider the process of assembling historical facts and subjective experiences to show how these points of view diverge according to various social cultural political and historical perspectives Encompassing the representations of wars in the English speaking world over the last hundred years this collection presents an extensive yet integrated reflection on various types of commemoration and interpretations of events Essays respond to common questions regarding war memory how and why do we remember war What does commemoration tell us about the actors in wars How does commemoration reflect contemporary society s culture of war War Memories disseminates current knowledge on the performance interpretation and rewriting of facts and events during and after wars while focusing on how patriotic fervour resistance conscientious objection injury trauma and propaganda contribute to the shaping of individual and collective memory Contributors include Joan Beaumont Australian National University Canberra Gilles Chamerois University of Brest France Subarno Chattarji University of Delhi India Nicole Cloarec Rennes 1 University France Corinne David Ives European University of Brittany Rennes 2 France Jeffrey Demsky San Bernardino Valley College California Sam Edwards Manchester Metropolitan University Georges Fournier Jean Moulin University France Annie Gagiano University of Stellenbosch South Africa David Haigron Rennes 2 University France Judith Keene University of Sydney Australia Melissa King San Bernardino Valley College California Christine Knauer Eberhard Karls University T bingen Germany Liliane Louvel University of Poitiers Michelle P Moore Canadian Army Doctrine and Training Centre Kingston Ontario John Mullen University of Rouen France Lorie Anne Duech Rainville Caen University France Elizabeth Rechniewski Australian Research Council Discovery Project Rapha l Ricaud University Paris Ouest Nanterre La D fense France Laura Robinson Royal Military College of Canada and Isabelle Roblin Universit du Littoral C te d Opale France
