'A brilliant novel which explores the allegorical death of an oral literary tradition, it is redolent with the

Solibo Magnificent:

Soundings in French Caribbean Writing Since 1950 Mary Gallagher, 2002-11-07 Over the second half of the twentieth century a substantial flow of writing emerged from the French held Caribbean Much of this work is both theoretically knowing and poetically potent and has attracted international attention to the literary resonances of the uniquely complex geo historical situation of the Caribbean and indeed of the Americas in general Much of its passion pertinence and appeal inheres in its approach to time and to space an approach still reverberating with the shock of displacement and its various after tremors an exploded sense of diversity radical relativization the profound expropriations of enslavement colonial erosion Through readings of high profile as well as lesser known writing this book tracks some of the more striking tensions and tropisms at work in the French Caribbean imagination of space and time and their intersection It studies generic interplay textual palimpsest narrative structure and other dynamics of writing that realize and manipulate the intersections of time and space history and memory writing and rewriting voice and text referential space and inter textual space as well as cultural theory and literary practice identity and difference place and displacement In this way it probes both the strains and the stresses and also the insights and gravitations that make for the particular French Caribbean timbre of this volume of writing This specific vibration while illuminating Caribbean New World and post colonial thinking in general also encourages wider reflection on global resonances of displacement and dislocation and on more general issues such as the role of writing and of narrative in particular in the confrontation of absence and presence loss and desire distance and diversity This book locates the problematic of time space in relation to historiographical geo cultural and phenomenological thinking and it also takes account of the detonation of critical interest in what is broadly termed post colonial writing Its fundamental concern however is to show how a particular corpus of writing has in the space of half a century and from a bracing position of hyper relationality responded imaginatively and poetically to the challenge of envisioning place and of relating space to time

Ici-là Mary Gallagher, 2003 In Caribbean writing place is intimately inflected by displacement place and displacement are not dichotomous every here invariably implies a there In line with this extreme imbrication of dis location Caribbean writing in French explores questions of increasing global pertinence such as the relation between writing and displacement local and distant space text and place identity and migration passage and transformation Contributions range across genres and the work of writers such as Aim C saire Patrick Chamoiseau Ren D pestre douard Glissant mile Ollivier Gis le Pineau Simone Schwarz Bart and Ernest P pin Topics explored include the poetics of dwelling space the postmodern or postcolonial dynamic of the Creole town and the textualization of place and displacement Also included are essays on the drama of distance the metamorphosis of recent Haitian writing the literary reverberations of the figure of Toussaint L Ouverture and links between Ireland and the French Caribbean

and anthropologists from France West Africa and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world Focusing on novels films and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire s political and epistemological boundaries In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch Malian writer Amadou Hamp t B Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau and others anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation It also Izzo contends helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures

Culture as Text, Text as Culture Elodie Lafitte,Christina Wall,Mary Cobb Wittrock,2020-05-22 Culture as Text Text as Culture represents a novel interdisciplinary analysis of textuality as it pertains to Cultural Studies More specifically the work examines how the analysis of texts has shaped the most vital contemporary debate of Cultural Studies the recognition that all texts and their contexts are constructs Building upon a Post structural Post modern understanding of truth as a construct Cultural Studies has long since acknowledged the ability of texts to express the time and culture of their origin This work however expands this idea demonstrating not only how a culture is preserved in a text but how that text can in turn define its culture even redefine its history This compendium is structured around four of the most prominent contemporary topics of Cultural Studies the relationship between historical and fictional writing the ability of authors to recreate or redefine history the relationship between language and image and the ability for traditionally marginalized groups to reassert their place in history The book presents articles from a large spectrum of disciplinary fields and civilizations in order to demonstrate how the application of Cultural Studies can unite seemingly disparate disciplines identifies strongly with a European predominantly Christian culture The Battle of Kosovo 1389 is an important addition to our understanding of the past present and future of this complex Balkan nation as well as the broader issues of national memory and identity Annotated Books Received ,2002 Transition ,1999 British Design and Art Direction ,1999
