Marguerite Bourgeoys and Montreal, 1640-1665 Patricia Simpson, 1997 St Marguerite Bourgeoys 1620 1700 canonized in 1982 is a key figure in Canadian and religious history as a founder of Montreal and of the international order the Congregation de Notre Dame de Montreal one of the first uncloistered religious communities of women Patricia Simpson goes behind the mist of myth and hagiography surrounding Marguerite Bourgeoys to reveal her true character Marguerite Bourgeoys et Montreal documents her life in France and in the struggling settlement of Ville Marie present day Montreal placing her life within the larger historical context of the time and highlighting the role of women in society and the church

Who Was Doris Hedges? Robert Lecker, 2020-11-18 Despite her trailblazing efforts to represent the work of Canadian writers to publishers in North America and abroad Doris Hedges 1896 1972 the Montreal author who started Canada's first literary agency in 1946 is routinely excluded from Canadian literary histories In Who Was Doris Hedges Robert Lecker provides a detailed account of her remarkable career Hedges published several novels short stories and books of poetry moved in Montreal literary circles did a stint as a radio broadcaster and provided reports to the Wartime Information Board during the Second World War possibly as an American spy She lived a privileged life in the Golden Square Mile district of downtown Montreal with her husband Geoffrey Hedges a member of the Benson and Hedges tobacco empire The more one uncovers about Hedges's life the more one discovers a courageous figure who was exploring many of the conflicted issues of her day the rise of juvenile delinquency the suppression of female sexuality the place of women in business and finance and the difficulties confronting the publishing industry in the years leading up to and following the war Mixing lively biographical commentary with literary analysis Who Was Doris Hedges is a vivid account of a writer's life and concerns during a period when Canada's literature was coming of age

A History of Global Anglicanism Kevin Ward, 2006-11-23 Anglicanism can be seen as irredeemably English In this book Kevin Ward questions that assumption He explores the character of the African Asian Oceanic Caribbean and Latin American churches which are now a majority in the world wide communion and shows how they are decisively shaping what it means to be Anglican While emphasising the importance of colonialism and neo colonialism for explaining the globalisation of Anglicanism Ward does not focus predominantly on the Churches of Britain and N America nor does he privilege the idea of Anglicanism as an expansion of English Christianity At a time when Anglicanism faces the danger of dissolution Ward explores the historically deep roots of non Western forms of Anglicanism and the importance of the diversity and flexibility which has so far enabled Anglicanism to develop cohesive yet multiform identities around the world

Anglicans in Canada Alan L. Hayes, 2004-03-10 From the first worship services onboard English ships during the sixteenth century to the contentious toughmindedness of early clergymen to current debates about sexuality Alan L Hayes provides a comprehensive survey of the history of the Canadian Anglican Church Unprecedented in the annals of Canadian religious history it examines whether something like an Anglican identity emerged from within the changing forms of doctrine worship ministry and institutions With writing that conveys a strong sense of place and people Hayes ultimately finds such an identity not in the relatively few agreements within Anglicanism but within the disagreements themselves Including hard to find historical documents Anglicans in Canada is ideal for research classroom use and as a resource for church groups

A Solitary Pillar Joan Marshall, 1994 Joan Marshall examines the effect of socio political change on the English speaking community's relationship to the Anglican church at both the diocese and the parish level Her argument is based on quantitative measures of attendance membership and financial contributions and qualitative data derived from interviews and participant observation She also examines changes in male female roles and expectations the old order Book of Common Prayer versus the new order Book of Alternate Services the role of music and other issues to tease out an understanding of the central role of the church vis a vis individuals the parish communities and broader Quebec society Marshall makes a significant contribution to our understanding of how concepts of institutions community place cultural conflict and cultural survival are interwoven
