Heinbecker, Bessma Momani, 2010-10-30 Canada and the Middle East In Theory and Practice provides a unique perspective on one of the world's most geopolitically important regions. From the perspective of Canada's diplomats, academics, and former policy practitioners involved in the region, the book offers an overview of Canada's relationship with the Middle East and the challenges Canada faces there. The contributors examine Canada's efforts to promote its interests and values: peace, building, peacekeeping, multiculturalism, and multilateralism, for example, and investigate the views of interested communities on Canada's relations with countries of the Middle East. Canada and the Middle East will be useful to academics and students studying the Middle East, Canadian foreign policy, and international relations. It will also serve as a primer for Canadian companies investing in the Middle East and a helpful reference for Canada's foreign service and journalists stationed abroad by providing a background to Canada's interests and role in the region. Co-published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation. Routledge Handbook of Environmental Hazards and Society Tara K. McGee, Edmund C. Penning-Rowsell, 2022-06-30 This Handbook provides a state-of-the-science review of research and practice in the human dimensions of hazards field. The Routledge Handbook of Environmental Hazards and Society reviews and assesses existing knowledge and explores future research priorities in this growing field. It showcases the work of international experts, including established researchers, future stars in the field, and practitioners. Organised into four parts, all chapters have an international focus, and many include case studies from around the world. Part I explains geophysical and hydro-meteorological/climatological hazards, their impacts, and mitigation. Part II explores vulnerability, resilience, and equity. Part III explores preparedness, responses during environmental hazard events, impacts, and the recovery process. Part IV explores policy and practice, including governments' support provided during and after environmental hazard events and provision of information. This Handbook will serve as an important resource for students, academics, practitioners, and policymakers working in the fields of environmental hazards and disaster risk reduction. Liste mensuelle d'ouvrages catalogués à la Bibliothèque des Nations Unies United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1972 Crucial Images in the Presentation of a Kurdish National Identity Martin Strohmeier, 2003 This book deals with the discourse on Kurdishness and the development of the Kurdish national movement from its inception at the end of the 19th century to the late 1930s by using as source the Kurdish press, open letters, propaganda brochures, and a novel.
