Sofia Poems:

Sofia Joan Logghe, 1999 Among the Spanish people who settled New Mexico four centuries ago were Jews forced into exile during the Inquisition. This series of thirty poems reveals the life of one of these crypto Jews a Hispanic woman with a Sephardic background. Drawing on the stories and lives of actual women as well as on the author's own life in the Espaola Valley these poems written in English and translated into Spanish are presented bilingually in this powerful book. The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more. In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud. Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English. Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature. It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible. Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian. For some works e.g. Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions. Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available. The Guide is divided into two parts. Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e.g. poetry oral literature. The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e.g. the Thousand and One Nights or writers e.g. Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e.g. Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e.g. Hungarian Scottish Gaelic. There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators.

Poems Nikola Šonkov Vaptšarov, 1952 Contemporary East European Poetry Emery Edward George, 1993 An anthology featuring 160 poets writing in 15 languages. By the standards of Western Europe the subjects are heavy on social and political issues which only reflects the difference between the two Europes. Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans. Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium. The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas. Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds. The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes     Historical Dictionary of Bulgaria Raymond Detrez,2026-01-08

Focusing on Bulgaria this book contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section contains cross referenced entries     Poems of Nazim Hikmet Nâzım Hikmet,1994 Nazim Hikmet 1902 1963 the greatest modern Turkish poet was a political prisoner in Turkey for eighteen years and spent the last thirteen years of his life in exile Banned in his own country for thirty years his poetry has been translated into more than fifty languages and today he is recognized world wide as one of the twentieth century s great international poets This revised and enlarged selection of his finest work enables us at last to hear in a single volume the full range of his distinctive voice in the highly acclaimed versions that have made him an influential presence in contemporary poetry     The to Z of Bulgaria Raymond Detrez,2010-05-10

Few states have fought as hard or as long to be established as that of the Republic of Bulgaria The Bulgarians have over the centuries created their own principalities kingdoms and republics only to have them crushed by stronger entities including the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires While recently the communist regime was largely dominated by and overly submissive to the Soviet Union Fortunately about 15 years ago a new republic arose which began revamping the economy reviving the political life and forging a new place in Europe The A to Z of Bulgaria contains more than 600 cross referenced entries on Bulgarian historical periods places terms organizations events and personalities The number of entries dealing with historical figures and events has been considerably enlarged and all of the entries of the first edition that have remained were carefully updated The newest insights of Bulgarian historiography as practiced in Bulgaria and abroad are also reflected In addition the book includes a brief introduction into Bulgarian history from the earliest times until mid 2005 including the formation of the current cabinet an easy reference chronology of Bulgarian history several maps and lists of Bulgarian political parties administrations and leaders A comprehensive bibliography is included to facilitate further reading on Bulgaria and Bulgarian history     Humanistica Lovaniensia Dirk Sacré,Jan Papy,Lambert Isebaert,Monique Mund-Dopchie,Gilbert Tournoy,2009-12
