their own subordination Janice Boddy examines the moral universe of the village discussing female circumcision personhood kinship and bodily integrity then describes the workings of the cult and the effect of possession on the lives of men as well as women She suggests that spirit possession is a feminist discourse though a veiled and allegorical one on women s objectification and subordination Additionally the spirit world acts as a foil for village life in the context of rapid historical change and as such provides a focus for cultural resistance that is particularly though not exclusively relevant to women
