Chlup,Conor Whately,2020-09-07 This volume explores the enigmatic primary source known as the ancient military manual In particular the volume explores the extent to which these diverse texts constitute a genre sometimes unsatisfactorily classified as technical literature and the degree to which they reflect the practice of warfare With contributions from a diverse group of scholars the chapters examine military manuals from early Archaic Greece to the Byzantine period covering a wide range of topics including readership siege warfare mercenaries defeat textual history and religion Coverage includes most of the major contemporary siege manual writers including Xenophon Frontinus Vegetius and Maurice Close examination of these texts serves to reveals the complex ways in which ancient Greeks Romans and Byzantines sought to understand better and impose order upon the seemingly irrational phenomenon known as war Providing insight into the multifaceted collection of texts that constituted military manuals this volume is a key resource for students and scholars of warfare and military literature in the classical and Byzantine periods Justin, Philosopher and Martyr Denis Minns,Paul Parvis,2009-08-13 Justin Martyr c 100 165 was one of the key apologists of the Early Church Oxford Early Christian Texts presents a new critical edition of the Greek text of the Apologies with introduction English translation and textual commentary Editors Denis

Minns and Paul Parvis take a searching look at the text transmitted by the single fourteenth century manuscript containing the works of Justin. They attempt to see behind the work of the Byzantine editor and his predecessors who sought to make sense of the badly damaged text before them. The commentary is designed not merely to annotate the text but to identify and draw out Justin's train of thought and the structure of his argument. It explains the readings adopted in the text by setting Justin's Greek within his Christian Hellenistic and philosophical contexts. The introduction traces the complex history of the text in manuscript and print and discusses the puzzling relationship of the Second Apology to the First and suggests a new solution. Justin is located against the background of the diversity of Christianity in the second century. A new understanding of Justin emerges from this work. His thought is often sharper and his language more pointed than has been recognised and the difficulty of the task he set himself of bridging the enormous gap between two cultures is clearly shown. General
